

What does a Missional Church Look Like?

- A missional church is focused on God the Trinity. Worship lies at the heart of a missional church, and to love and know God as Father, Son and Spirit is its chief inspiration and primary purpose.
- A missional church is incarnational. It seeks to shape itself in relation to the culture in which it is located or to which it is called.
- A missional church is transformational. It exists for the transformation of individuals and of the community that it serves, through the power of the Gospel and the Holy Spirit.
- A missional church makes disciples. It is active in calling people to faith in Jesus Christ.
- A missional church is relational. It is characterized by welcome and hospitality. Its ethos and style are open to change when new members join.
