Notice

The One Hundred and Thirty-Eighth Session of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton will convene on Saturday, 2 November 2024, at 8:50 a.m. at Christ Church Cathedral, 150 Church St., Fredericton.

Membership

The Credentials Committee advises that it is important for those who intend to exercise membership of the Synod confirm that their name appears on either the list of licensed clergy or elected lay delegates and substitutes. PLEASE REFER TO SECTION B. Those who feel the lists are in error need to take steps, prior to registration on the day of Synod, to clarify their status. Clergy not listed should contact the Bishop's Secretary in advance of the session. Lay delegates, or lay substitutes replacing a delegate, not listed should assure the completion of the form of Certification of a Synod Delegate prior to attempting to register.

Registration

Registration opens at 8:00 a.m. Please register upon arrival at the synod session on Nov. 2 as a quorum will be required to convene the Session.

Convening Circular

Delegates should become as familiar as possible with the contents of this convening circular prior to the synod session and bring a copy to the session. If lay delegates are unable to attend the session of synod, this circular must be passed to the substitute from the same parish attending in their place. Those who wish to reference the digital version of the circular should download it to a device prior to arriving at the venue, if possible.

Clergy Reports

Canon Seven 6(b) requires all clergy having a cure of souls, to "deliver to the Bishop at each regular meeting of the Synod a report of the work done in the parish since the previous regular meeting of the Synod." The archbishop requests that the report be a personal assessment of the ministry implemented and of plans for the future which are being considered. This means the report should not be in the form of the annual statistical returns or the rector's annual report to the congregation.

Communicable Disease Prevention

Delegates are expected to assess and manage their personal risk and respect the risk assessment of other delegates. Wash or disinfect your hands often, and cover coughs and sneezes. Most importantly, stay at home if you are sick.

Other Information

Please visit the Synod 2024 web page (nb.anglican.ca/synod2024) for additional up to date information or to contact members of the Synod Sessional Committees. The Secretary of Synod is available to answer your questions or direct you to someone who can.

Prayers for Synod

For this Synod

Almighty God, giver of all and ruler of all that is seen and unseen; we ask for continual divine grace to your Church and especially to the 139th Session of Diocesan Synod. May we walk in your way, leading lives worthy of our calling, in humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another in love and maintaining the unity of your Spirit in the bond of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Being Communities for our Communities

O Lord our creator, by your holy prophet you taught your ancient people to seek the welfare of the cities in which they lived. We commend our communities and neighbourhoods to your care, that they might be kept free from social strife and decay. Give us strength of purpose and concern for others, that we may create in our province a community of justice and peace where your will may be done; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

For the mission of the Church

Draw your Church together, O Lord, into one great company of disciples, together following our Lord Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving him in his mission to the world, and together witnessing to his love on every continent and island. May your Holy Spirit encourage and enable us in this diocese to bless those in our congregations and neighbourhoods, to make opportunities to eat with others, to take time to listen to you and learn from your Word and the writings of gifted authors, and to know ourselves to be sent by you into our community and the world. We ask this in his name and for his sake.

For the ministry of the Church

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts, in your divine providence you have appointed various orders in your Church. Give your grace, we humbly pray, to all who are called to any office and ministry for your people; and so fill them with the truth of your doctrine and clothe them with holiness of life, that they may faithfully serve before you, to the glory of your great name and for the benefit of your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

For Peace

O God, it is your will to hold both heaven and earth in a single peace. Let the design of your great love shine on the waste of our wraths and sorrows, and give peace to your Church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARIST

Cheryl Jacobs announced that a Synod offering would be collected during the Eucharist for the Primate's World Relief and Development Fund (PWRDF). The Dean presided at a Come Worship Eucharist, with music by the Cathedral Come Worship Band. In his homily, Dean Hall spoke of the presence of Jesus and how Jesus showing himself in the breaking of bread connects the physical world to the invisible God. God is not so far off when the divine spirit is among us.

Charter for Racial Justice

Motion 138-12 – Thomas Nisbett / David Page

THAT the Charter for Racial Justice of the Anglican Church of Canada become the policy of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton.

An explanation of the motion is found in the Additional Notices of Motion provided to members upon registration. Thomas Nisbett noted that the motion arose from discussion in the Parish of Newcastle-Nelson-Hardwicke. The Charter has been around for a long time, but on investigation the parish discovered the diocese had never adopted the Charter as policy.

The motion commits the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton to adopting the Charter as a statement of values and aspirations that will influence the policies and procedures of the Synod, the Diocesan Council, and committees.

Terence Chandra commended the motion. He has been on the receiving end of racism. He believed that it is time the diocese had a discussion, but that the charter was not the best document for starting the conversation. Cole Hartin agreed, noting it was not necessary to adopt the charter as policy as it already is policy at the national level. Rob Langmaid raised a concern that this motion would have Synod adopt the policy and then a subsequent planned motion would require Synod to figure out the implications. Rob recommended tabling the motion until the next Session explaining that it would be better to have Diocesan Council consider this policy and its implications and report back to Synod before a decision.

Motion to Table Motion 138-12 Until the Next Session of Synod

Motion 138-13 – Robert Langmaid / Paul Mills

Approved.

Motion 138-12 was tabled.

Task Force on Racial Justice

Motion 138-14 – Thomas Nisbett / David Page

THAT the Diocesan Council establish a Task Force on Racial Justice made up of at least one representative from each Archdeaconry to:

- examine the implications for the Diocese of Fredericton of the Charter for Racial Justice in the Anglican Church of Canada;
- educate congregations about issues of racial justice, racism, xenophobia, prejudice and discrimination in the Christian context; and
- make recommendations concerning implementation of the Charter for Racial Justice across the Diocese.
- Report at the 139th session of Synod

An explanation for the motion is found in the Additional Notices of Motion. Rob Langmaid and Gerry Laskey spoke in support of the motion. Lionel Hayter requested a friendly amendment to add the requirement for the Task Force to report at the next Synod, to which the mover and seconder agreed.

The reworded motion carried by voice vote.

Provision of Information, Openness, Accountability and Transparency

Motion 138-15 – Geoffrey Hall / David Barrett

THAT the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton resume and continue the compilation, publication, and printing of year-end reports at each Synod for the completed years since its prior session including:

- Corporation (parish/congregation) statistical information
- Corporation (parish/congregation) financial information
- Corporation (parish/congregation) investment information

and that errata pages be added to the 138th session convening circular with the information for the years 2019, 2020 and 2021.

Information on the motion is found in the Additional Notices of Motion.

Motion carried by voice vote with a few dissenting voices.

REPORTS

Diocesan Officer Reports and Diocesan Council Report

Motion 138-16 – Susan Jack / David Peer

THAT this Synod receive the Diocesan Officer Reports and Diocesan Council Report as found in this convening circular.

Reports are found in Sections E and F of the convening circular. No discussion occurred on this motion.

Motion carried by voice vote.

Review Engagement Report and Financial Statements 2019, 2020, & 2021

Motion 138-17 – Susan Jack / David Peer

THAT this Synod receive the Diocesan Review Engagement Reports and Financial Statements for the years ending 31 December 2019, 2020, and 2021.

The Diocesan Review Engagement Reports and Financial Statements for the years 2019, 2020 and 2021 are in the convening circular as Appendices 1-3.

Heather Harris-Jones pointed out to members that the statement format has changed over the past three years to streamline them and make them more transparent and easier to understand. The Statement of Operations provides the best measure of the Synod's financial performance. Focus should be on the excess of revenue over expenditures, as that metric excludes unrealized market fluctuations and shows how well the financial affairs of the Synod have been managed to the budget.

Overall, Heather is pleased with how the Synod weathered the past three years. Shared Ministry Assessment rates decreased and the level of service to the parishes increased. Although the financial numbers are good, our financial future holds challenges like volatile market conditions, inflation, and continued declining shared ministry assessments. Synod staff will continue to focus their effort towards balancing the budget. The Treasurer's full report is found on pages E-18 to E-21 of the convening circular.

Lionel Hayter thanked Heather and the finance team for their effort managing Synod resources and for their effort in making the financial statement transparent.

Motion carried unanimously by voice vote.

The Bishop thanked Heather and the Synod finance staff for the work they have done and noted that our finances have been extremely well managed over the past three years. We are in substantially better financial position and better understand our financial risks and opportunities than most other dioceses in the Anglican Church of Canada.

Connor concluded by reminding members that shaping the future of the diocese will take all of us, it will take time, and it will be uncomfortable; however, we have each other to encourage, support and challenge, and we have renewed hope! Our hope is in Christ alone! “Nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 8:38-39) This is the hope we cling to.

The Bishop's Charge
To the 138th Synod of the Diocese of Fredericton
Fredericton, New Brunswick
November 5, 2022

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- Romans 8: 38-39

I want to begin by saying thank you. We have travelled, and continue to travel along, a difficult road for the past two and a half years. COVID-19 has been draining for us all. It has moved many of the markers we have taken for granted both in daily life and the life of the Church. We have seen friends and family being unwell and in some cases relatives and those close to us have died.

Yet we have continued to worship together in different ways. We have supported each other through this time. We have prayed for each other and our communities. As restrictions have eased many congregations have sought ways in which we can meet the needs of those around us. I am grateful to you for this and am grateful to God for the Diocese I have been called to serve.

As we begin to emerge from the pandemic, we find ourselves in a changed landscape. It was changing before early 2020, but in some ways, though by no means all, things have accelerated during the last two years.

Last week we received numbers from Statistics Canada giving us the results of the 2021 Census's survey on religious belief in Canada.

The good news is that about 53% of Canadians identify as Christian; the bad news, that is down from 67% ten years before.

When we narrow that down into New Brunswick the numbers are challenging. 104,000 fewer New Brunswickers identify as Christian than was the case ten years ago, leaving a total of 512,645.

Of these, 35,205 identified as Anglican compared to 54,270 in 2011. These are big numbers, and we cannot easily drill down into them to establish causes. What we can say is the numbers of those who identify as Christian is in decline across Canada and in New Brunswick, and those identifying as Anglican reflect this.

We can dwell on these numbers and hope that they turn around, but we, the Church in the West, have been doing that for decades, with little success. What is the issue? I wish this were not true, but as I talk to people who do not worship with us or have done so and have stopped, the message is relatively simple. They do not find the Church credible, because many see it as hypocritical, irrelevant, and lacking in compassion and grace. I am not solely talking about the Anglican Church; I am speaking of the "One holy Catholic and apostolic Church".

Now let me be clear, in most cases this is not due to their interaction with local congregations and individual Christians. Most of the time those are positive experiences. Rather, it is the headlines people read about the failings of the Church that lead them to dismiss us; and crucially, by dismissing us God is dismissed, and thereby the love which God has for the whole of creation.

I have read every one of the 74 responses that you have made to the survey that was sent out from my office. Thank you for taking the time to respond. There are many good things which have been mentioned in them and once again I am grateful to God and to you for the ways in which we have been led over the last two and a half years.

That being said, I hear three main themes, each of which is concerning and real. These are: how do we get people back into the pews, how do we improve our finances and how do we keep our buildings running? They are not new issues, but perhaps for some of us they have been highlighted during the pandemic.

From my perspective I can add to this a shortage of clergy to place in parishes where finances would allow them to be placed. I only see this becoming more pronounced.

How are we being called to be church when it seems the survival of what we know and understand as church is at stake?

I have served in this diocese for 25 years and these have been themes which have been evident to a lesser or greater extent for the whole of this time. The church I first served, St. James Broad Street in the south end of Saint John, has long been closed. The good news there is that we have been able to repurpose the site, with help from community partners, as a place to house and support homeless youth. Formerly called Safe Harbour and now known as Beacon Cove, this may give us a clue about the future.

As your Bishop, part of my role is to pray, discern and lead. I have discovered over the last eight years this is no easy task and the pandemic has made it less so. As I have prayed, I have gone back again and again to three passages of scripture. These are where I find my hope. The first is from Psalm 121: 1-4:

*I lift up my eyes to the hills—from where will my help come?
My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.*

This passage calls us to have eyes of faith. As you know it is used in the Burial Office. It is to be an encouragement in times of despair. In ancient Israel the gods who distracted people from God were worshipped in the high places. The Psalmist tells the people it is not from there that they will find help. They are to look beyond the hills to the creator, who made heaven and earth and who does not sleep.

This is the God who keeps Israel, but as their history unfolded, it was perhaps not in the way that Israel hoped to be kept.

When we are fearful for ourselves, St. Paul reminds us in Romans 8: 38-39:

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

There is nothing that can separate anyone from the love of God in Christ and that is the message which we are to join God in demonstrating as it is made known to the whole creation.

When we are fearful for the Church, we have the words of Jesus himself (from Matthew 16: 18):

And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.

The following chart shows us what is happening in the Anglican Communion across the world. Of course, the North American picture is not pretty, but the gates of hell are not prevailing against God's Church, Anglican or otherwise. The truth is the growth is not happening here where we would like to see it.

Over the years I have been asked to produce a diocesan plan for growth. I have resisted this because in my experience top-down plans do not work. During my time as bishop, we have had a number of initiatives, which have included things such as BELLS, and they have taken root in some places and not in others. The idea behind these things has been to try to deepen our faith as we seek to be disciples of Jesus.

At our last Synod it was agreed that each parish would produce a Mission Action Plan. This initiative was to be locally based, but unfortunately the pandemic reduced our ability to undertake the making of such plans, though to do so now could form a start point for a way forward.

So, what are we to do? How are we to discern the will of God for us as the Anglican Church in New Brunswick as we move forward from here?

First, we have to recognize the nature of the problem. For a multitude of reasons our society has been turning away from God, and to a greater extent God's Church, for more than fifty years. No matter what has been tried through programs, plans and initiatives, this has not been reversed. It is time to question and discern if what we have and are holding on to is helping us become what God wants us to be. It seems that when we try to hold on to what we have, it trickles through our fingers like water.

Now we stand at a crisis and our only alternative is to seek the Lord while he may be found and call upon him while he is near – and he is near.

If we can recognize the truth of our situation and accept it, then perhaps we can allow God to do something about it.

As with all journeys the first step is the hardest. I admit that I hardly understand what I am saying here, but we have to engage deeply both individually and corporately with the mystery who is God. God who created, sustains and fills creation. God whose love, grace and mercy stretches beyond the Church to the whole of creation. God, who out of generosity loves to bless, but also suffers with us all as creation groans, as in the pains of childbirth waiting for the children of God to be revealed.

Recently, Debbie and I were in Toronto, as we passed St. Paul's Bloor Street we were stopped by this sculpture "When I was a Stranger"; words of Jesus from Matthew 25.

God Incarnate, Jesus, invites us to sit with him and to walk with him into the depths of God. Jesus says to us as he said to his disciples "Follow me". Before we follow, we may have to sit awhile, to discover where we are being led.

There are many ways to do this. Using Lectio Divina in our daily prayers where we leave silence for God to speak or using "A Disciple's Prayer Book". There are multiple resources out there. But here is the thing: we have to do this corporately as well as individually. We are being called to discern God together.

I know this does not sound like us. I know that if I were sitting listening to me I would say, "David, you are being ridiculous. I don't have time for this. Give me something to do, some practical action to take".

My reply to me is this, "Unless I can understand even a little more about God and the way he loves and suffers for his creation, I will never understand God's mission in God's world". Furthermore, unless I come to understand God's mission, even a little more, I will not understand how we, the Church, are to reflect God in the world; and thereby never know what God is calling us to do.

I am now going to enter onto dangerous ground, because I am going to give us things to consider as we seek to engage with God. The problem is that people like me will jump to these without taking the necessary time to discern. What we have to do is to ask: as we follow Jesus, the image of the invisible God, into discerning more of the character of God, is what are God's desires for the mission and ministry of the Church in advancing the Kingdom?

In other words, how are we being called to reflect the image of God in our parishes and diocese? But before that, are these hints, that I think I am hearing and am going to point to now, even correct? What needs to be added or taken away?

Whatever we do has to be locally discerned. This means that we are to make significant time individually and corporately outside Sunday worship to pray and listen to God and each other. If you need my help to do this, or another facilitator, it can be arranged.

As we do this, we remember our Anglican roots. These have been discerned and acted upon over centuries. Our mission and ministry are summed up in these few words “the cure of souls”. Seeking healing, wholeness, and peace for ourselves and the communities we are called to serve.

More recently the Church has discerned the following as flowing from the “cure of souls”:

The Five Marks of Mission:

The mission of the Church is the mission of Christ:

1. To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom.
2. To teach, baptise and nurture new believers.
3. To respond to human need by loving service.
4. To transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and pursue peace and reconciliation.
5. To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth.

How do these reflect the character of God and how do we move forward on some of them locally both across the diocese and in the different parts of our province?

Finally, I hope that what you have understood from my many words today is that we as the Anglican Diocese of Fredericton, as with the Church as a whole, are being called into a new place. We do not really understand what that means. We have to look beyond ourselves into the mystery of God and begin to more fully understand how God sees things and how God wants us to work with him to draw all things unto himself.

This will lead us in many directions, and I want to give us some guideposts which I believe we need to know the answers to as we reflect individually, as Synod, and in our parishes over the coming weeks and months.

- What do we have that sustains us and what impedes us?
- Where are we being called to take risks and to experiment?
- How do we continue to engage with the communities we are called to serve?
- How do we continue to grow as disciples of Christ?

These guideposts have to be applied to all areas of our life together. It means that we must look at all aspects of the diocese, our parishes, our synod, our governance, everything.

The Church has two essential tasks: to worship God and to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom of God. Our task, as it has been throughout the history of the Church is to discern how these things are to be done for the Glory of God, that others may see God's glory and believe. I am calling upon us to take the risk of walking by faith and not by sight.

Response to the Bishop's Charge
138th Diocesan Synod of Fredericton
November 5, 2022

Delivered by Connor DeMerchant

Archbishop, Fellow members of Synod, Guests and Observers:

I want to begin, by thanking you Archbishop David for your leadership, prayer and counsel, particularly during the past few years. These have been difficult and challenging, and we have been grateful for your steadfast and transparent leadership during this time.

As we look ahead, we know that the future of the diocese will not look like our past. It cannot. We have been changed and impacted. Thank you for being honest with us, as difficult as this might have been.

Reflecting on what was shared from across our discussion groups this morning, there was agreement that

- we are being invited to take time to deepen our faith through reading and listening to Scripture, praying together and listening to the Holy Spirit;
- we are not meant to be just people who meet for an hour once a week. We are called to live-life together – for God, each other and those outside us;
- we need to consider how our buildings support our church's mission or hinders it;
- we know that we are better together and yet we long for and miss those who are not there any more – how do we reclaim what it truly means to be community?

Going forward, we are being challenged.

- Thank you that you continue to call us to be risk-takers and support us when we do;
- How do we connect with and reconnect with ALL generations? We need to have all ages together if we are to really live and thrive;
- How do we strengthen our personal and corporate discipleship? We need to learn how to discern together as well. Thank you for helping us and being willing to lead us through this.
- We know that we cannot expect the rhythms and norms in the parishes to continue in the same way.

We are asking for your continued guidance and support.

- Leadership in our parishes is a very real challenge – both lay and ordained. We need support and help in training and forming our leaders.
- Our structures and systems can be distractions from the mission of the Church – how can the business of the Church be done with fewer people and simpler? We are more than a business.
- We need frameworks and models for parish discernment.
- We need to be together more – it has, understandably, been too long. How can we commit to supporting each other better?
- How do we reconnect with the communities around us? How do we become beacons of hope?

The future of the diocese will take all of us. It will take time, it will be uncomfortable – however, we have renewed hope! It is not one or two of us, working it out alone in our remote parish. We have each other to encourage, support and challenge.

Our hope is in Christ alone! “Nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 8:38-39) This is the hope we cling to.

Getting a Motion Before Synod

Synod Jurisdiction: The jurisdiction of the Diocesan Synod is the “government and administration of the temporal affairs of the Church in the Diocese” (Anglican Church Act, s.4(1)). In contrast to the Diocese’s “temporal affairs”, the spiritual affairs of the diocese are the jurisdiction of its bishop, and matters of “the doctrines of the Church” are the jurisdiction of the General Synod (Declaration of Principles, s.6).

Order of Consideration: [Canon Two, sections 7(4) and 8(2)]
Motions will be considered at Synod in the following order:

- 1) Notices given at a preceding Synod for consideration at the current Synod (to be printed in the order given);
- 2) Notices given six weeks before Synod (to be printed in the order received); and
- 3) Notices given at Synod before the deadline set by the Agenda Committee.

Motions of which notices are given under 1) and 2) above shall be considered prior to notices given at Synod under 3).

Making a Motion: All substantive motions are initiated by giving a Notice of Motion by way of the required form. Notices of Motion can be given either before or for a brief time during a Synod.

Before Synod: [Canon Two, sections 7(1)(b) and 7(2)]
Notices of Motion for regular meetings of Synod can be sent to the Resolutions Committee (resolutions@anglican.nb.ca) not less than six weeks before Synod and when appropriate will be printed in the Synod Journal and in the order received.

At Synod: [Canon Two, sections 3(10), 7(1)(a) and 7(3)]
Notices of Motion can be given at a meeting of Synod by delivering the same to the Resolutions Committee before the deadline set by the Agenda Committee. A Notice of Motion can be given for consideration either at the current meeting of Synod or at the next regular meeting of Synod. However, it is preferable to submit motions to the Resolutions in advance and not wait until the day of the Synod.

Procedural Motions: [Canon Two, section 8(5)]
Procedural motions (such as a motion to table, refer or adjourn) may be made without notice and must be disposed of before consideration of the substantive motion before Synod.

Resolutions Committee: [Canon Two, section 3(1), Regulation 2-1 Resolutions Committee Mandate]
The Resolutions Committee does not have authority to veto or refuse a motion, but will seek to ensure that the language reflects the mover’s intent and is in clear and coherent language, and the Committee may recommend clarifications and point out potential concerns. It may also suggest consolidation of a proposed motion with other motions received on the same subject.

New Expenditures: [Canon Two, section 8(3)]
Motions proposing new expenditures must either identify a proposed source of funding or be qualified as being made “subject to available funding.”

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE MANDATE

1 Task

It is the responsibility of the Committee:

- 1(1) To receive, and prepare for debate, motions proposed for the consideration of the Synod;
- 1(2) To ensure that proposed motions contain clear and concise statements of what is intended by the sponsors;
- 1(3) To propose consolidations of motions dealing with the same subject; and
- 1(4) Generally, to ensure that motions do not conflict with the Constitution or Canons, or the regulations, directives or guidelines of the Diocese.

2 Resolutions Procedures

- 2(1) All motions not already printed in the Convening Circular, except those of a procedural or courtesy nature, or those that arise in the course of debate, shall be written and submitted to the Secretary for consideration by the Committee before being put to the Synod. (The Secretary will give the notice of motion to the Chair of the Resolutions Committee who will assign it a number and present it as a notice of motion at a time determined by the Agenda Committee.)
- 2(2) The Committee shall not debate the merits of any proposed motion, but will ensure that it contains a clear and concise statement of what is proposed.
- 2(3) Any motion presented to the Committee may be accompanied by an explanatory note setting forth the consideration leading to the proposal. This note will not form part of the motion.
- 2(4) The Committee is authorized to propose consolidations of motions which deal with the same subject, with the understanding that, in doing so, the Committee will consult with the sponsors of the motions.
- 2(5) The sponsors of any motion which is recommended for change by the Committee must be consulted and asked for their agreement to the change(s) proposed.
- 2(6) The Committee will advise the author of any proposed motion it considers to be:
  - a. outside the jurisdiction of the Diocesan Synod;
  - b. unclear or ambiguous;
  - c. inaccurate;
  - d. of local rather than a diocesan character;
  - e. impossible of performance; or
  - f. calculated to be a source of embarrassment to the Church;
 and propose amendments to the same, where possible, to alleviate such concerns.

3 Vote Count Team

- 3(1) Prior to each regular and special meeting of the Diocesan Synod, the Chair of the Resolutions Committee, in consultation with the Secretary of the Synod, shall select and train a Diocesan Synod Vote Count Team.
- 3(2) The Vote Count Team shall comprise at least six persons.
- 3(3) A member of the Diocesan Synod may be a member of the Vote Count Team.

Adopted
17 January 2009

Notices of Motion

Motion 2024-01 – Amendment of Canon Four (lay members of the Finance Committee) Susan Jack / David Peer

MOVED THAT

Canon Four – Diocesan Governance be amended as follows:

- 18(3) The Lay members of the Finance Committee shall be persons who are voting members of a parish, mission, or the Cathedral ~~qualified to be elected as delegates to the Synod.~~

Background: When Canon Four sub-section 18(3) was enacted many years ago, the pool of lay persons “qualified to be elected” as Synod delegates, and hence to be appointed as members of the Finance Committee, was simply the voting members of a parish. Subsequent changes to the Synod Constitution created term limits for lay Synod members. Term limits meant that there would now be a small class of voting members of a parish who, for a time, were ineligible for election as a Synod delegate. This limitation on eligibility for election to Synod was intended to promote turnover in Synod participation, but because of the wording of 18(3), it had the incidental effect of narrowing the pool of laity eligible for appointment to the Finance Committee. Such a limitation on appointment to the Finance Committee is pointless; Finance Committee membership has its own term limits. The proposed amendment would end this unintended restriction on lay eligibility to serve on the Finance Committee and would return the Synod to the former position that any lay voting member of a parish would be eligible for appointment.

Motion 2024-02 – Amendment of Canon Four (reference to Safe Church) Susan Jack / David Peer

MOVED THAT

Canon Four – Diocesan Governance be amended by adding:

Safe Church

22(1) The Diocesan Council shall maintain a regime of prevention, training, and mitigation to promote a safe working, learning, and worshipping environment for:

- a) participants in church activities, particularly children, youth, and vulnerable adults;
- b) those interacting with church corporations and their officers, employees, and volunteers; and
- c) those present on church property.

22(2) Subject to Canon XVIII (Discipline) of the General Synod and to the general law, safe church regulations and policies may bind the Bishop and those holding the Bishop’s license or permission for ministry or function, the Synod and its elected and appointed officers, employees, and volunteers, the Cathedral Chapter and its elected and appointed officers, employees, and volunteers, and parish corporations and missions and their elected and appointed officers, employees, and volunteers.

Background: The Diocesan Council's creation of a Safe Church regime of regulation and policies is authorized by Anglican Church Act in general terms. However, the Synod's usual legislative practice is to ground regulations and their accompanying policies in some fairly specific reference in the canons. The motion proposed here would anchor the Safe Church regulation and its subordinate policies expressly within Canon Four.

Motion 2024-03 – Amendment of Canon Six (timing of parish annual meetings)
Susan Jack / David Peer

MOVED THAT

Canon Six – Parish Governance be amended as follows:

- 2(1) There shall be, not later than the third Sunday in March ~~last day of February~~ in each year, an annual meeting of voting members in each parish which shall
- (a) determine, before nominations are made, the number, being not fewer than six nor more than twelve, of members of the Vestry to be elected,
  - (b) ...

Background: Some parishes that have their annual financials reviewed by an accountant report difficulty in completing those reviews in time to meet the current annual meeting deadline of the last day of February. This proposed motion would extend the annual meeting deadline modestly but helpfully.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF SYNOD

Mandated Responsibilities:

The Treasurer is appointed by Diocesan Council and under Section 10(2) of the Constitution is required to:

- a) receive all money belonging to or collected under the authority of the Synod, and disburse the same as the Synod shall direct,
- b) keep careful accounts of all money belonging to or collected and disbursed under the authority of the Synod and present those accounts to the Synod at each regular meeting of the Synod and to the Diocesan Council as it may require,
- c) transfer all property, books, records, documents and papers relating to its concerns that may be in the possession or control of the Treasurer to the successor or other person as the Synod may direct.

The Synod Treasurer provides financial information on a regular basis to the Finance Committee and to the Diocesan Council. The financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023, are included in the Appendices of the Synod Convening Circular.

Diocesan Finances:

2022 - The financial results for 2022 were positive at an operating level only switching into deficit due to unrealised losses on investments. The unrealized loss on investments of $5.32m tipped the overall result into a deficit of $5.25m for the year. Excess Revenue over Expenditures is due to stable realized investment income, higher other contributions, and good overall expenditure control.

2023 - The financial results of 2023 provided a surplus for the Diocese accounts due to consistent investment returns and reliable shared ministry contributions. The change in methodology of aligning the definition of income with that of the CRA implemented in the fall of 2021 and a change in the portfolio managers has meant the volatility of the short-term market has been replaced by more conservative but more consistent returns for both the parishes and the Diocese. The Operating result surplus in the amount of $74,908 and performed better than the budget for the year. The results at the fund balance level benefited from an unrealized gain on investments of $1.57m, giving an overall surplus of $1.65m.

Diocesan Shared Ministry Budget:

The 2023 Diocesan Shared Ministry Budget focuses on the mission and ministry of the Diocese, in keeping with the diocesan mission statement. Support is provided to four major areas of ministry: Ministries with Youth 4.7%, Parish Development and Support 11.4%, Mission and Ministry 11.6% and Ministry Development and Education 2.5%. Incorporated throughout the various areas of ministry are grants, and contributions to support the Diocesan mission focus totaling $671,981 or 17.7% of the total 2023 budget.

Within revenue, 27% of the funding comes from parish shared ministry support and another 12% from cost recoveries or self-funded programs, with the balance coming from allocation of designated or special funds, reserve transfers and investment income. Of the budget 82.7% is focused on providing either direct support to the parishes, or mission and ministry on behalf of the whole diocese. Synod office administration and diocesan governance account for the balance at 17.3% of the total expenditures. To maintain services and the level of ministry provided, while not placing additional burden on the parishes, the 2025 budget projects a deficit of $118k which will be managed through a combination of reduced program costs, increased revenue and through reserves, if necessary. The ongoing challenge is to continue identifying and implementing cost savings throughout the year.

The continued parish support of the Diocesan shared ministry budget improved 2% to 96% year on year. The current approach for parish support of the diocesan ministry budget, instituted in 2014 appears to be working in accordance with the objectives: an approach that is fair, equitable, and transparent; easily understood, communicated, and applied but flexible enough to recognize and accommodate extenuating circumstances. While some parishes are still challenged to contribute, they are small in number.

Diocesan Trusts:

There were no major new contributions to the diocesan trusts in 2023. The trusts returned 4.59% net of fees and after disbursements grew to $10.88m. Total funds under Diocese management increased to $40.6m, up from $37.3m the year before to December 2022. The parishes share of this is 53.6% ($21.7m), was helped in part by steady returns and one significant contribution to the parish of Sussex of $1.68m.

Diocesan Support to the Parishes:

The diocese remains committed to providing opportunities for parish leaders and congregations to gain insight, skills and knowledge that will help enhance parish operations and meet the constantly evolving challenges. A number of education programs are due to be rolled out in 2025 supporting both clergy and lay memberships.

Diocesan Youth Camps:

The youth camps continue to be a major initiative of the diocese in terms of providing leadership and financial resources. Recognizing the role that these facilities play in shaping the future of young people, the diocese is devoted to providing leadership, capital and operational support. With that being said, the youth camps continue to be a major focus of financial discussion, in terms of existing operational obligations, funding and long-term viability.

Diocesan Financial Administration:

Financial and administrative systems and processes continue to be reviewed, not only for the current operations but also the ability of the financial, physical and human resources to face the challenges of the future needs of the Diocese and support for the Parishes. This is critical as in recent years the Diocese has assumed and provided more financial and administrative support. Documentation of key processes is ongoing with continued efforts to streamline and make improvements as identified.

Challenges and Blessings:

I assumed the role of Synod Treasurer in March 2024. I have been able to quickly integrate into the organization and determine priorities to focus and manage my time over the many tasks and projects that needed my attention during a period of vacancy in this post. I have been fortunate in inheriting a stable team and this has helped me assimilate quickly into my role.

I am blessed by the leadership and support of Bishop and the Executive Officer for their guidance and support throughout my short appointment so far. As Synod Treasurer, I have the pleasure of working closely with them, the team at the Diocese and alongside the Chair of the Finance Committee, who has much insightful knowledge and experience. To the many volunteer Parish treasurers, your work is valued and appreciated. Lastly, I am truly enjoying this opportunity that has been afforded to me and I am thankful and appreciative of the fabulous welcome I have received.

Respectfully submitted,
Philip Shepherdson, Treasurer of the Synod

INTERIM REPORT OF THE TASK FORCE ON RACIAL JUSTICE

The Task Force was first established through a resolution of Diocesan Council in March 2023, based on motion 138-14 at the 2022 Synod, and fully constituted in December 2023.

Establishing the Task Force on Racial Justice:

Establishing a full complement of the Task Force from each of the Archdeaconries in the Diocese proved to be much more difficult than first thought, with numerous people wishing to offer an opinion concerning the subject matter of the Task Force, but few wishing to put their names forward to give concrete leadership in that regard.

Also, efforts to get help from the Synod Office and the Archdeacons of the Diocese in identifying disparate voices with which to fill out the membership of the Task Force as suggested by the establishing resolutions, proved equally as difficult.

We are, therefore, eternally grateful to those who put their name forward to listen, learn and give input to the work of the Task Force over these many months as follows:

- The Rev Terence Chandra
- The Rev. Lidvald Haugen-Strand
- The Rev. Bob LeBlanc
- The Rev Julian Pillay
- Mrs. Dorothy Wilson
- Mr. Bill Wilson
- The Rev. Thomas Nisbett (Chair)

While we were unable to find a person from our membership to represent the views of the First Nations Community of New Brunswick, we have benefitted from input and wisdom offered by both Archbishop Chris Harper and Chief Roger Augustine.

Understanding the Issue of Racism

The online Cambridge Dictionary defines Racism in two main ways:

- policies, behaviors, rules, etc. that result in a continued unfair advantage to some people and unfair or harmful treatment of others based on race; and,
- harmful or unfair things that people say, do, or think based on the belief that their own race makes them more intelligent, good, moral, etc. than people of other races.

Racism is understood as different from issues of xenophobia, prejudice, discrimination and ignorance, in that they can be influenced and changed by information about or exposure to people who are different, unusual, or hold differing views and opinions.

Racism is not unique to one particular race or ethnic group.

Institutional Racism is defined by Cambridge as:

- policies, rules, practices, etc. that are a usual part of the way an organization works, and that result in and support a continued unfair advantage to some people and unfair or harmful treatment of others based on race;

The Anti-racism Working Group of the Anglican Church of Canada has defined Racism as:

- the belief, reinforced by power and privilege, that one race is innately superior to other races. Systemic racism occurs when the power and privilege of one racial group results in the exclusion, oppression or exploitation of other groups of different racial origin. Racism also manifests itself in individuals in the form of racial harassment when a person or persons belonging to a privileged group behaves in ways that intimidate, demean, or undermine the dignity of others on the basis of their race. A consequence for victims is that racism becomes internalized as deeply engrained feelings of self-hatred and low self-esteem.

The National Church's Statement on Racism was received by the Council of General Synod in March 2004, and has been used as a foundation document for further dialogue and discussion since that time. It holds that through baptism we enter "a new life in Christ through which we affirm that divisions of race have been put aside and that all come before God as equals." The General Synod also undertook to start a number of initiatives flowing from that Statement which would assist the organization in fulfilling its stated goal of eliminating racist structures and behaviors, both within its immediate sphere of influence and in the wider society.

It is the unanimous opinion of the members of the Task Force that the National Church's Statement on Racial Justice could, with a bit of editing, could be easily adopted by any significant secular organization. That, in an effort to try to create a document that would be acceptable to as wide an audience as possible, it has not truly captured the essence of what a Church should say or be.

To that end, the Task Force does not recommend that the Anglican Diocese of Fredericton adopt the Charter for Racial Justice in the Anglican Church of Canada as reflecting its aspirations for how the Diocese must move into the future. In its stead, it is recommended that the Diocese undertake a series of initiatives to assist parishes and individuals to both grapple with the Biblical implications of racism and intolerance and understand the spiritual freedom which comes from heeding the call of Christ to "love one another." Racism must be seen as something that affects the whole Church, not just those who are directly and personally impacted by it.

Racial Justice vs Biblical Justice

Racial Justice, by definition, is a legislative function (one of crime and punishment) which seeks to ensure that the advantages offered by a particular state or jurisdiction are available to every inhabitant or member of that state or jurisdiction. It seeks to provide a legal framework which includes guarantees that one group will not have access to the advantages and resources of a society while others are deprived or shut out from them.

The Gospel of Matthew offers the following instruction:

<sup>35</sup> One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: <sup>36</sup> "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?" <sup>37</sup> Jesus replied: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." <sup>38</sup> This is the first and greatest commandment. <sup>39</sup> And the second is like it: "Love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>40</sup> All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments." [Matthew 22:35-40 NIV]

As people of faith in the teachings and example of Jesus Christ, however, we are to be about establishing Biblical Justice for all peoples, nations and tribes. This is distinctly different than Racial Justice or Social Justice in that it begins and ends with a call to love God above all else, and in so doing, influence everything we might do: in thought, word or deed.

As St. John the Evangelist so clearly states:

19 We love because he first loved us. 20 Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen. 21 And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister. [1 John 4:19-21]

Jesus calls us to a sense "love in action", not just to an appropriate set of words or principals. What we do reflects, for the most part, what is in our hearts. It is in how we earnestly and boldly welcome those around us into our midst in love (and without fear) that we will defeat the natural tendency toward tribalism and racism inherent in all of us.

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

Suggested Initiatives for Parishes

- A set of self-assessment questions that parishes (and other ancillary organizations) can use to understand how open and welcoming they truly are, with a view to developing activities which welcome "others" into their midst;
- Cultural festivals and events which celebrate the diversity and contributions of the disparate communities in which they serve;
- Welcoming/Integration Groups established as a way of helping new clergy (especial clergy from abroad) to adapt and integrate into their new communities and parishes;
- Bible studies with a view to helping parishioners understand the call of Christ inherent in the diversity found in our communities;

Suggested Initiatives for the Bishop

- Annual visits to parishes with a view celebrating the contribution of diverse groups;
- New church plants or targeted growth strategies in areas and communities where diverse groups are established;
- Encourage the use of new liturgies and worship styles reflecting the increased diversity of our communities;
- Training of archdeacons and other key leaders in accessing "new communities" and the sensitivities inherent in such strategies;
- Establish hiring practices which, over time, help Diocesan staff to become more reflective of the diversity and makeup of the community around them;

Suggested Initiatives for the Diocesan Council

- Examine the Recommendations 58 to 61 of the National Truth and Reconciliation Commission relevant to the Churches and develop a plan to build a relationship between the Diocese and our Aboriginal sisters and brothers.
- Offer diversity, inclusion and cultural awareness training for all clergy, staff and key volunteers in the Diocese, including leaders at the parish level.
- Examine the rules, statutes, procedures, practices and regulations operative within the Diocese with a view to identifying elements that discourage the full participation of key groups in the Church.

Respectfully submitted as a Draft Report of the Task Force on Racial Justice.

CONSTITUTION AND CANONS (STANDING) COMMITTEE / CHANCELLOR / VICE-CHANCELLOR

The convening circular for Synod 2022 provided an overview of what the Constitution and Canons Committee, chancellor and vice chancellor do in relation to the Synod's legal needs, and what matters they usually do not get involved with. This report is an update on practicalities.

The most time-consuming of the Synod's legal concerns is development of legislation, particularly in the form drafting Regulations and Policies that go ultimately to the Diocesan Council for consideration. An example is Regulation 6-3 (Cemetery Management), which took two years to bring about. That process began in late 2021, with the first draft of a discussion paper. After versions of proposed legislative language were circulated twice for comment to all parishes and then considered twice by the Diocesan Council, the Regulation came finally into force on 1 November 2023. More recently, a new regulation on Share Ministry Assessment, a new policy on certain Clerical Leaves of Absence and a revised Misconduct Policy have been drafted. As of the time of writing, all are at some stage of circulation in relevant committees.

The Synod remains fortunate that Vice-Chancellor VanBuskirk has special expertise in employment and human rights law.

Particular thanks continue to be offered to the vice-chancellor and to ex-chancellors Ronald Stevenson, Charles Ferris and Clyde Spinney. Across my own ten-year tenure they have been consulted often, sharing freely their long memories and varied experience.

In January 2025 Canada's forty diocesan and provincial chancellors will meet in anticipation of the forthcoming General Synod.

David Bell, Chancellor & Committee Chair

FINANCE (STANDING) COMMITTEE

Mandate

To manage Diocesan real and personal property; manage Diocesan trusts; exercise Diocesan borrowing functions; approve all Diocesan real estate acquisitions, renovations, disposals or demolitions; manage Diocesan investments, in particular, those diocesan, Cathedral and parish investments placed in the Diocesan Consolidated Investment Fund; advise and direct the Treasurer of the Diocese; assist in the preparation of the Diocesan budget, guide and advise parishes experiencing financial challenges; collaborate with the Human Resources Committee on issues regarding remuneration and benefits; and other matters including property and liability insurance.

Members

The Rev. Canon David Barrett, David Bell (Chancellor), Gilbert Carter, Archbishop David Edwards, Scott Fairweather (Investment Committee Chair), the Very Rev. Geoffrey Hall (Dean), Philip Shepherdson (Synod Treasurer), Susan Jack (Chair), Jim Knight (Property Committee Chair), the Ven. Rob Marsh, Laura McNulty, the Rev. David Peer.

Highlights

Investment Committee

The Investment Committee, a sub-committee of Finance, has been diligently following the markets to ensure that the returns on the Diocesan Consolidated Investment Funds (DCIF) are appropriate.

The Investment Committee comprises Scott Fairweather (Chair), Mike Briggs, Susan Jack and ex-officio members Philip Shepherdson, the Rev. David Peer and Archbishop David Edwards.

Property Committee

The Property Committee is also a sub-committee of Finance. This committee assessed requests from several parishes and brought 28 motions to Finance Committee over the last two years. In addition, they provided regular updates of property issues to the Finance Committee and provided parishes with their expertise as required. The long-serving Chair, Jim Knight, has recently stepped back after many years of service for which we are very grateful. The Synod office has temporarily taken on his role while the Nominating Committee works to find a replacement.

Members include Mike Briggs, Clare Fracker, the Rev. Bob LeBlanc, the Ven. Rob Marsh, the Rev. Michael O'Hara, the Rev. Steven Scribner and Bill Tracy.

Budgets and Shared Ministry

In our current inflationary world both synod and parishes continue to experience increasing financial pressures. In many cases there is less money coming in with little ability to reduce operating costs. In some cases, required building maintenance is being delayed which is concerning. The last eleven years has seen a 16.9% decrease in Shared Ministry Assessments of parishes which is reflective of both reductions of parish revenues and of a reduction in the rates used for the calculation. The synod office has worked hard to help manage parish costs wherever possible.

The calculation of Shared Ministry amounts is based on a parish's revenue. The percentages are applied to the average income for the previous three years.

Year	Based on avg. of	First $50K on revenue	Second $50K of revenue	Over $100K of revenue
2020	2016,2017,2018	10%	15%	20%
2021-2024		9%	14%	18%
2025 (proposed)	2021,2022,2023	9%	14%	18%

The Shared Ministry amounts from parishes provide for the following:

- Support to Parishes – payroll/payroll administration, insurance administration, full coverage insurance for directors and officers, benefits/benefit administration, investment management and administration, Safe Church, legal support, and e-offering program.
- Clergy Support – clergy relocation, employee assistance and extended EAP, archdeacon expenses, clergy contingency, clergy education and training (Clergy Conference, College and other post-ordination training).
- National Church – shared ministry assessment to the national office.
- Episcopal Costs – bishop, travel and clerical support.
- Direct Grants – parishes, missions, other
- Communications Office

The synod office works diligently to improve the robustness of processes with an eye to reducing costs, both financial and resource. A couple of examples over the last year have been:

- Changing the provider of employee health care benefits.
- Changing from a monthly to a bi-weekly payroll cycle.

Grants and Reimbursements/Cost Reduction to Parishes

Our synod budget includes line items to fund both Diocesan Synod Grants and Shared Ministry Relief. In the last couple of years we have maintained these line items despite budgeted losses we have had to project.

The table below summarizes the Shared Ministry Relief and Diocesan Synod Grants provided to parishes for the last three years.

Budget Year	Shared Ministry Relief	Diocesan Synod Grants
2022	$37,225	$75,000
2023	$32,581	$80,000
2024	$27,010	$83,000

Parishes have also benefitted from:

- A decrease in recovery of the cost of employee benefits (reduction of $20-$25/month).
- A decrease in the threshold for Travel Pool claims of 5,000km to 12,500km.
- A rebate of insurance deductibles of $343.
- A distribution of surplus amounts in the Travel Pool Fund of $500 or $250 to participating parishes.
- WorkSafe NB fees for all parish staff were covered by synod for 2024.

Policy Updates

After receiving feedback from parishes, the Finance Committee concurred that a later date for the completion of parish annual meetings would benefit many parishes, especially those who share treasurers or use external accounting firms to audit or review their books. As such the committee recommended a change to Canon Six which Diocesan Council has recommended to Synod for approval.

Diocesan Consolidated Investment Fund (DCIF)

Since early 2022 all our investments have been managed by PH&N Investment Services, a part of the RBC Global Asset Management Family. The Finance Committee is pleased with the performance of our funds managed by PH&N so far. PH&N use a Diversified Investment style where they use both growth and value.

In the table below are various annual financial metrics for the DCIF starting with 2021, the first full year managed by PH&N and then YTD for July 2024. Realized Return is the sum of interest, dividends and realized capital gains, net of management fees paid. The Money Weighted Return is often used for institutional portfolios like the DCIF where cash flows in and out as the calculation considers these cashflows. The Time Weighted Return is slightly different but is easier to calculate and is useful as it can be compared to other Time Weighted returns for various markets. The Weighted Index takes Time Weighted Returns for Canadian Equities, Global Equities and Global Fixed Income and weights them based on our Asset Allocation. This gives us a comparison of what a portfolio like the DCIF should be providing as a return.

Financial Metric	2021	2022	2023	YTD July 2024
Market Value $M	40.1	37.3	40.6	43.6
Realized Return %	6.10	4.50	4.59	1.02
Money Weighted Return %	15.00	-8.53	8.66	9.06
Time Weighted Return %	15.98	-8.19	9.16	9.35
Weighted Index %	11.63	-9.24	11.18	9.23

The YTD July 2024 Realized Return is only 1.02% as we receive most of our dividends in December of each year. YTD July 2023 was 2.75% as we had higher realized gains by this time last year. All of the market returns for 2022 were down as higher inflation caused Central Banks to raise interest rates which hurts valuations for both stocks and bonds. However, the Realized Return was 4.50% as we still receive dividends and interest and were able to get some realized gains.

We have been working closely with PH&N, to determine a sustainable rate of return and to predict the realized rate of return for all our investments. We originally had PH&N plan for an annual return of 4.5% of which 3.5% will be paid out from interest, dividends and net gains on sales in order to fund our budget. The other 1% is reinvested to ensure long-term fund sustainability. This will provide a more consistent rate of return on the DCIF portfolio and provide a more consistent payout to the Parishes while reducing risk to the Diocese. For the 2024 Budget we agreed with PH&N to lower the annual return from its original 4.50% to 4.25%

The interest rate paid on Parish investments has been set at 3.25% since 2022. No bonus interest has been paid since 2019. Interest rates were already low prior to Covid but Central Banks cut them further to keep the economy moving. Instead of lowering the rate paid on Parish investments as other rates such as GICs were lowered, we maintained it at this 3.25%.

Final Comments from the Chair

The Finance Committee continues to be very busy, often meeting more than once a month as well as during the summer. The Committee members are a very dedicated group who rarely miss a meeting. For this, combined with the collective wisdom and knowledge that they bring to the table, I am grateful.

I am pleased that the Synod office continues to find cost reduction opportunities as well as ways to make the day-to-day operations more robust. The Synod office works hard to manage costs, just as our parishes do. The current period of inflation has brought some unique challenges to all of us, financial challenges being some of them. Be assured that we are always available to work with parishes one-on-one to provide assistance with any financial challenges.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Jack, Chair

HUMAN RESOURCES (STANDING) COMMITTEE

Current Membership: Mike Briggs (Chair), David Edwards, David Peer, Rod Black, Nancy Stephens, Tony Munn, Brent Ham, Ben Bourque. The HR committee meets monthly except during the summer months.

Cost of Living Assessments and Increases

Recommendations made for Cost Living for 2024 and 2025 made to Finance in accordance with other NB COL increases. This increase is suggested to be applied to Housing Allowance. The replacement car allowance has been static for more than 10 years. The committee looked into this and after a number of discussions has made a recommendation to Finance for an increase with others to follow over the next 2 years.

Medical Benefit Transition

After some issues with the new provider cover has switched to Blue Cross, administered out of Moncton. Transition went relatively smoothly and is now running smoothly.

Safe Church Update

David Peer and David Bell are reviewing the entire Safe Church programme to update it. We expect revised Policy for HR to review in mid to late 2025 for recommendation to Council. Diocese is responsible for following up on Criminal Record Checks for ordained clergy and follow up will take place in 2025.

Radon Testing

The Committee asked Parishes for interest in purchasing Radon Test Kits as a lot of our churches and rectories are older and may have radon issues that need to be remediated. Kits will be distributed to Parishes that requested them at the 2024 Greater Chapter Meetings or at Synod.

Clergy Leave

The committee identified that there is no set policy regarding clergy serving in the Armed Forces Reserves as Chaplains who are deployed. After discussions a draft policy was sent to the Chancellor for review and he has recommendation for revision as he felt the policy was too narrow. Revised policy will have been presented to Council at the September meeting.

Retirement Presentation

The committee noted that there has not been a pre-retirement presentation to clergy for some years. The committee is working with Finance and our Investment Advisors on this.

Respectfully submitted,
Mike Briggs, Chair

NOMINATING (STANDING) COMMITTEE

The reestablished Nominations Committee met three times in 2024.

The Committee has recognized that Diocesan Council and the committee need better ways to make people aware of opportunities on Council Committees other than word of mouth and investigation. A targeted request for people with skills, knowledge, and experience for vacant positions is needed. To this end the committee are in process of developing transparent strategies to identify potential nominees.

Submitted on behalf of the Nominations Committee
Trevor Fotheringham, Committee Chair

GENERAL SYNOD 2023 MEMBER REPORT

The following is a member reflection of the "Let there be greening" Assembly 2023 during which the 43rd meeting of General Synod occurred. I thank my diocesan family for electing me as a delegate to this gathering that took place in Calgary, Alberta, from June 27 to July 2. I also thank the General Synod Planning Committee for the opportunity to serve as Honorary Clerical Secretary during the proceedings.

This was the second Joint Assembly with our Full Communion partners, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC). We engaged in our respective business separately; however, had rich times of worship, fellowship, Bible study, presentations and conversations jointly. I found such times deeply meaningful and encouraging as we endeavored to share together, learn from each other and support the work of God's Church.

As per the business of The General Synod, information can be found on the Assembly website (assembly.anglicanlutheran.ca). The Resolutions page on that site contains detailed information of the work done by the synod.

The further comments that I have to share are more of a reflection of where I observed and experienced God's work, God's grace amid our time together.

The General Secretary, the Ven. Alan T. Perry, addressed the synod about our work and encouraged discernment together. He shared an encouragement for General Synod to be "the Anglican Church of Canada at its best". Sometimes we weren't and sometimes we were.

The biggest take away for me, that was subsequently brought back to our Diocesan Council, is the discipline of "calling for the Gospel of the Day to be read". National Indigenous Anglican Archbishop Chris Harper introduced this way of engaging to us. At any time during the proceedings, any member of the synod could approach the microphone and call for the Gospel be read. In my experience, hearing the Gospel, provided a pause and reminded me who I am. A centering or re-orientation back to the leading of the Holy Spirit and God's work amongst the business. A way we can be our best.

At one point during a presentation, one of the speakers shared that they were nervous and uncomfortable about speaking and being up on the stage at the microphone. What happened next was simply beautiful, an act of Christian being. Someone else on that stage quietly got up and stood beside the person at the microphone; supporting them and encouraging them as they did a wonderful job sharing with us. This instinctive act of coming forward and standing beside the other demonstrated for me the posture of a disciple who is in good apostolic shape.

I conclude my reflection with a prayer for us that at one point, Archbishop Harper prayed and speaks to what has been shared above.

Lord, help us to be better today, than yesterday and the day before. To walk shoulder to shoulder with our brothers and sisters, relatives and this world. We are one. One small step at a time, one unified prayer with the earth and creator. Amen.

The Reverend Canon Cathy Laskey

PROVINCIAL SYNOD 2024

The 50th Convening of the Synod of the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada took place via Zoom on June 14-15, 2024. The Province includes seven dioceses: Central Newfoundland, Eastern Newfoundland and Labrador, Fredericton, Montreal, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, Quebec and Western Newfoundland. Attending were seven bishops, 14 clergy executive or members, and 15 lay executive or members.

Archbishop David Edwards, Metropolitan, chaired the meeting. His presidential address noted that the Church will never go back to some imagined Golden Age; then asked, "what are we to do?" He noted that the synod has the responsibility for tending to the structure that has been passed on to us, but that the purpose of any church structure has to be the proclamation of the Gospel to enable the Church to serve God in God's world. Through listening to the Holy Spirit, we will discern how to make this happen in the places where God has called us to serve.

A key presentation was from the Primate's Commission on "Reimagining the Church: Proclaiming the Gospel in the 21st Century".

The following were elected to the Provincial Synod Executive: Prolocutor – the Rev. Eli Evans (ENL), Deputy Prolocutor – Robert MacMillan, Clerical Secretary – the Rev. Mickton Phiri, Lay Secretary – Clarence Coombs. David Bell remains as Chancellor and Robert Taylor remains as Treasurer, both from the Diocese of Fredericton. The Rev. Jasmine Chandra was appointed to the Provincial Council from this diocese.

Respectfully submitted,
Bishop's Office

ANGLICAN FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

Our Mission: The Anglican Fellowship of Prayer is a lay ministry, aided by members of the ordained clergy, which serves the church and the world by encouraging, facilitating, and promoting the use, understanding and discipline of prayer.

AFP (Canada) seeks to be a teaching resource to assist both individuals and congregations to grow in the life of prayer. It seeks to increase and strengthen the companionship of Christian prayer throughout the world. There are a number of prayer resources (print and video) available for download from the AFP website (<https://anglicanprayer.org/index.php/resources/>).

A prayer gathering is held virtually each month on the third Monday of the month, at 1:00 p.m. Eastern Time, to hear from a variety of speakers and to spend some time together in prayer. Edited recordings of the sessions are made available online approximately one week after the original live session. These videos do not contain any personal details of participants, but will isolate the presentation portion of the session, for use in your parish, deanery or Diocese. A perfect resource for a prayer gathering any time it suits your schedule.

If anyone is interested in becoming a parish representative for AFP, please contact Debbie Edmondson at debbie.edmondson@anglican.nb.ca.

CAMP BROOKWOOD

Summer 2024:

- Leadership camp -5 campers
- Boys & Girls - 20 campers
- Welcome to Camp - 5 campers
- Boys & Girls 2 - 24 campers
- Teen Camp - 12 campers
- Total = 66 campers

This is a little down from last year. Please remember it is still in a rebuilding phase after covid, and this takes time and a lot of hard work to have it grow.

The Camp Brookwood Board is working hard at how we move forward in changing times. They would love your support and willingness to lend a hand. Exploring new and old ideas to see how it can grow and develop. This camp has a special place in a lot of hearts. For those children who don't like big crowds and love lots of one-on-one attention this camp is great.

Please, your prayers and financial support would be greatly appreciated.

CAMP MEDLEY

Greetings from Camp Medley:

The past two years have been good for camp. Here's what 2024 looks like:

Camp Campers:	375 over six weeks of camp
Family Camp & Day Destination:	85
Dance Camp rental:	61
Water Ski Camp rental:	90 people on site
School Groups:	300 (they come for a day in June)
Total Numbers:	911

Along with this we have had 36 rental user groups using the camp. This ranges from a person wanting to have a quiet retreat in one of our rooms, to groups of 200 people. Weddings are catching hold and we are booking into 2026.

We are open now year-round, and we do our best to accommodate group needs. We have been able to accomplish a lot in the past years and we have lots more to do. Actually, my to do list just gets longer as we work along.

I was very pleased with the summer staff they worked hard to make campers time at camp very special. Another group that is very important to camp is the volunteers who come and give of their time and talents. The list of volunteers is long and there is always room for more. The work from the synod staff is also a blessing to what takes place at camp. To all the Staff, Volunteers, Synod Staff, Thank You!

As you may be aware the big project ahead is the Pool and Maintenance building. We are doing fundraising currently. Your support would be a blessing and a gift to all who come through the camp facility.

Respectfully submitted,
John Galbraith, Director of Camp Medley

COMPANION DIOCESE COMMITTEE

Committee members: Canon Robert Griffin (chair), Archbishop David Edwards, Gisele McKnight, Robert Taylor, and Lilian Ketch

Since the last synod, the Companion Diocese Committee has met several times. The Ho Mobile Clinic project has been successfully completed. It is successfully operating on its own budget funded by the Ghana Department of Health. The Ho teaching Hospital provides the medical team to go on the rural visits, and the Diocese of Ho provides a priest to accompany each visit with spiritual and mental health guidance. The project was audited by a Cadre member of the Rotary Foundation, our largest funder of the $283,000 project. He gave the project a very high rating and stated that it could become a Project of Scale, meaning that it could be a $2,000,000 project to provide ten clinics for an area such as Western Africa.

The Ho Teaching Hospital sends us quarterly reports of the clinic's activity. During the first six months of this year of operation, the clinic has served 3,811 patients—far beyond our initial expectations. Of those seen, 1050 patients were critically ill, and they were referred to the hospital in Ho for treatment. We do not have a number of patients who actually went to Ho, the capital of the Volta Region. The clinic visits consisted of eye clinics, ear-nose-and throat, pediatrics, family medicine, internal medicine, and dental.

I had the opportunity to go out on a clinic run last fall when I was in Ghana. The clinic visited the rural village of Peke for a pediatric, family care and internist clinic. An advance team had been sent to the village to ask permission from the chief to take the clinic to the village. Notice was sent out to the villagers not just in Peke, but in surrounding villages as well. The village has no electricity, no cell service, nor any medical personnel. On the day of the clinic, over 300 people arrived in Peke for the clinic. One elderly woman told me it was the first time a doctor had ever been to the village.

The hospital had sent five doctors—each of a different specialty, eight nurses, three pharmacists, three lab technicians, and twelve support staff—including people to sign up patients for Ghana National Health service, to set up the clinic tents, and drivers. It operated like a MASH unit, with tents for various activities, and the mobile clinic for the lab.

The system was very organized and efficient—we could learn a thing or two from the Africans. People queued up as they arrived at the clinic site. They were met by an attendant who asked if they had their National Health Card. If not (and most didn't) they were sent to register and have their picture taken for their card. Then, they were triaged by a nurse. She determined the specialist they were to see, and they were sent to one of the lines to see the doctor. Once seen by the doctor, they could be sent to the lab technicians for a test, such as a urine analysis, hematology analysis, disease testing such as diabetes, typhoid, cholera, or malaria. They then immediately returned to the doctor for diagnosis and care. Most patients then were sent to the pharmacy tent, where they immediately had their prescription(s) filled. By six o'clock that evening, everyone had been seen by a doctor, and they left with medical advice and often with a filled prescription(s) in hand. This scenario is being repeated throughout the Volta and Oti Regions.

As a Diocese, we can be very proud of this Companion Diocese project. God has used us to look after His people in an area that had no medical service prior to this project. I hope to return to the Diocese of Ho, Ghana, in the new year, to do another needs assessment to determine how they can be assisted in the future. Please keep the people of the Diocese of Ho in our prayers.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert Griffin, Chair and Lay Canon of Ho

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY - SAINT JOHN (Saint John Regional Hospital and Saint Joseph's Hospital)

I begin this Saint John Hospitals Anglican Chaplaincy report with a poignant plea from a patient I had the privilege to meet. Their words underscore the profound significance of our presence in the lives of those facing illness, recovery, or the end of life.

"It doesn't matter if you know the person or not. Visit. Come and sit with them! It will mean so much and make a difference. Your presence will mean much more than having someone to pass the time with."

The patient's request is not just an invitation but a call to action for all of us. It is a missional call to all parish families and individuals to offer the ministry of presence to those facing illness, recovering from surgery, or dying. Your presence, listening ear, care, and support can make a world of difference in a time of need.

Full visitation privileges have resumed for those clerics and lay pastoral visitors in the community who are current members of the Spiritual Care Department. The renewal process training has also been improved. Reach out to the Department and/or myself if you feel you need further help and support to offer a ministry of pastoral presence.

Christian chaplaincy has its roots in the life and witness of St. Martin of Tours. It is said that Martin traveled around the countryside to meet ordinary people who town officials neglected. The Anglican Chaplaincy ministry in Saint John enables connection with inactive Anglicans, such as those who are no longer physically able to go to a church building for corporate worship or other activities, those who have drifted away from their church communities, and those who have been orphaned by the institutional church, often because of a building closure or parish dissolution.

The ministry of the Anglican Chaplain provides "religious support and rituals for patients, their families, and staff by providing faith-specific comfort and guidance when requested. The chaplain offers pastoral care and sacramental ministry to all Anglican patients within Horizon's Saint John Regional Hospital (SJRH) and St. Joseph's Hospital (SJH)." [ref: position description]. With a patient's consent, I have connected parishioners with their cleric, reconnected inactive or orphaned Anglicans to a Parish Family, and continue to provide pastoral care and sacramental ministry to those who remain disconnected.

SJRH provides specialized healthcare services to people across New Brunswick. This means I frequently engage with Anglicans from parishes outside the three Archdeaconries usually covered by this Health Zone, so there is a continued ministry for the Cure of Souls when their cleric can't visit. Similarly, local parishes whose clergy are serving part-time have the assurance of an ongoing presence for their people as we collaborate.

Since beginning to serve as the Anglican Chaplain on December 1, 2023, on average, the SJRH has seen 19 names on the daily Anglican list populated from information gathered during registration. Unfortunately, "Would you like to see a chaplain?" isn't always asked when a person is admitted. A patient, family member, or designated support person must initiate the request to be put on the Anglican Chaplain's Visiting List. The request can be made through the patient's nurse or by calling or texting The Anglican Chaplain at (506) 333-8026.

I am grateful for the clergy and laity who communicate with me on behalf of those for whom they have received permission to do so. Because of this collaboration, the Anglican list would increase by at least a couple of names per week.

I am also grateful to those who have gifted items of religious significance to the Saint John Hospitals Chaplaincy to give to patients. It is a joy to see such gifts blessing so many. Some items received to date have been prayer blankets, crocheted Easter crosses, and funds for specific books - anything to brighten a patient's room and support them in their faith and healing journey. Patients themselves have also made suggestions of helpful items such as a nail file and a simple partitioned basket to hold everything neatly on their tray table

During the first quarter of this year, the denominational chaplains were given access to another list for the three transitional units (i.e., those awaiting special care/nursing home placement) at SJRH. This list contains denominational identification, which must be verified by the respective chaplain first. Once consent is given, the patient's name is transferred to the daily chaplain's list. Some weeks, one to five new people are added to my list!

During the second quarter of this year, the denominational chaplains were given access to more units at SJRH, which has increased the Anglican list. This new approach supports those who desire the chaplain's ministry while they are in the hospital. The Spiritual Care Manager for the Saint John Area, The Rev. Kelly Hudson-Lewis, continues to collaborate with Horizon's leadership to ensure up-to-date and accurate spiritual care and religious care lists are available. I greatly appreciate her ongoing efforts to improve patient access to spiritual and religious care as well as her influential leadership and support.

Two part-time clinical Spiritual Care Practitioners, Lori Robertson and Linda Maher, receive consults that sometimes involve an Anglican patient. Upon the patient's request, they can transfer the patient to my list, and then we can work together. As a denominational chaplain, I do not have permission to chart, nor do I have access to a patient's chart. With a patient's consent, this type of collaboration assists significantly in the person's care and support of their loved ones. I identify the parish a patient is currently connected with and whether their cleric knows they are in the hospital. If they want me to contact their cleric, I can do so. This approach is one solution to the challenge of community clergy not having access to denominational lists.

Since December 1, 2023, my list for St. Joseph's has averaged 14 patients. Patients typically remain at SJH for extended periods before returning home or transitioning to Long-Term Care or Special Care Home.

I am grateful to Angela King, the Spiritual and Religious Care Coordinator at St. Joseph's Hospital, for accurate Anglican Chaplain lists. The process at SJH differs from SJRH in that Angela receives a consult for each admission, and every effort is made to meet with each patient to determine their religious affiliation and identify their specific religious needs. Very few Anglicans are overlooked! Angela is a certified Spiritual Care Practitioner and a member of the clinical healthcare team at SJH. Angela's expertise is in spirituality with people living with dementia, so her weekly ecumenical worship services in the units are designed to engage and support patients experiencing brain change creatively. The patients greatly appreciate these times of fellowship and prayer. Depending on the need, I am on site one afternoon a week and can return for another afternoon.

Two things to note:

- 1) A patient's religious affiliation does not follow them if transferred from one hospital to another. The request needs to be made again, and
- 2) Patients admitted for Ortho or Day Surgery at SJH will not be on my list. These patients must ask to be added to the Anglican Chaplain's list at the time of their admission.

The three Denominational Chaplains, the Rev. Mark Leary (Baptist), the Rev. Aaron Knox (Roman Catholic), and I, serve as members of SJH's Spiritual and Religious Care Advisory Committee, which meets six times yearly.

I meet with the Bishop's Designate, the Ven. Leo Martin regularly. These times allow for updates and communication of information as well as a professional and personal check-in. I thank Archdeacon Leo for his ongoing support and contribution to Spiritual, Pastoral and Religious Care.

To date, I have been able to share in two of the three local deanery clericus' and am scheduled to be in a deanery outside of this Horizon zone. I have also shared with one parish and one parish group about the ministry of the Saint John Hospitals Chaplaincy.

I continue to be intentional to maintain a rhythm of prayer and retreat. I'm deeply grateful to the Atlantic Association of Spiritual Exercises to the Apostolate, Saint John Local, for their annual offering of a five-day silent retreat and seasonal retreats in the Ignatian Spirituality format hosted at the Villa Madonna. I'm grateful for prayerful conversations with my Spiritual Director and discernment related to the ministry of chaplaincy.

A support group is being formed to nurture the Anglican Chaplaincy and myself as priest and chaplain. One of the pilot projects hoped to be explored further is the opportunity to collaborate with a Nursing Home. This comes out of a vision and need for parish families to come alongside those who are patients/residents in nursing and/or special care homes and to support their families and staff. God has gifted us here in New Brunswick with a great number of aging people and seniors providing the opportunity for us as a Diocesan Family to be more present and supportive.

Incidentally, during these early months of the chaplaincy, it was discovered that there are several "nursing home-type populations" within the Transitional Units at SJRH. Our Elderly deteriorate rapidly in an acute care setting because the units are not set up to provide the level of stimulation and engagement needed. It is hoped that church communities can make a difference.

Diocesan ministry leadership opportunities continue to be: Godly Play Storyteller Trainer and Diocesan Facilitator, 12 12 12 Coordinator and Anglican Foundation Diocesan Liaison with our Diocesan Champion, Clyde Spinney and as an Honorary Priest in the Parish of Gondola Point.

As I conclude this report, I want to thank my predecessor, the Rev. Canon David Barrett, for his work and the ministry he offered, recognizing Anglican Hospital Chaplaincy within the hospitals. He and the Rev. Ann Fairweather have graciously provided retreat as well as vacation coverage, ensuring continuous care. I thank Archbishop David Edwards as my bishop and chief pastor, for his ongoing support and vision.

To my delight, both hospital settings have been places of welcome for Anglican chaplaincy ministry. Overall, the staff have been very receptive when opportunities are presented for partnership and the sharing of pastoral and sacramental ministries and other gifts. I'm grateful to these nurses, personal support workers, physicians and specialists, food service and cleaning staff who understand the gift of chaplaincy ministry. It is during those times that the care of the patient and families is honored in a professional way. Being invited into hospital rooms and the life, health and spiritual situations of patients is sacred space. This kind of presence and specialized ministry is only possible because of our generous and caring Diocesan Family. Bless you+

LAYREADERS

Mandate

A layreader is a lay person authorized by the diocesan bishop to officiate at worship services or take a leadership role in certain parts of a service. Layreaders are licensed as in-training or parochial, and assigned to a particular parish, or as diocesan and able to serve in multiple parishes as needed.

Statistics

As of the writing of this report there are 283 active layreaders in the diocese. This is an overall reduction of eleven since the report to the 2022 Synod, including at least nine active or retired layreaders who have died. The category totals are 67 diocesan, 172 parochial and 33 layreaders-in-training. Seventeen Layreader Emeritus certificates were issued since the last synod session.

Layreader Gatherings

Archbishop David has hosted four layreader training days since the last report to Synod:

- October 1, 2022: Gathering Again with an emphasis on vocation and discipleship
- March 18, 2023: Preaching
- November 4, 2023: BCP and BAS Worship led by Abp. David and the Rev. Bruce Glencross
- April 20, 2024: Pastoral Care and Visiting led by Dr. Ken Neilson

Layreader Training Program

Recommended courses for layreaders-in-training and continuing education courses for parochial and diocesan layreaders, include:

- Biblical Foundations (See Through the Scriptures)
- Your S.H.A.P.E. for God's Service
- Anglican Worship: Reading Scripture & Liturgy in Public, Lord's Prayer, Prayers of the People, Unpacking the Creeds, Book of Common Prayer, Leading Worship as a Layreader, Spiritual Disciplines & Practices
- Church Doctrine
- Church History: The Reformation
- Leadership Foundations
- Introduction to Sermon Preparation

All course materials, including group facilitator toolkits, are available on the layreader section of the diocesan website. Most are designed to be offered in small group and self-study formats; and include a video presentation of the content by a cleric in the diocese. On-going evaluation of the course content is encouraged. Other than the large layreader gatherings, there has been little group training, but regular use of the self-study materials.

A search continues for a Warden of Layreaders.

MISSION TO SEAFARERS SAINT JOHN (SAINT JOHN SEAFARERS MISSION)

The Mission to Seafarers is a mission based in London that has operations in over 200 ports throughout the world. It is divided into Regions that are administered by a regional council and a regional director. Saint John has been an affiliated station for many decades. The beginnings go back to the very early ministry of the Rev. Canon Edward Coleman, who upon his return to Saint John after his first summer appointment as an officer in the Church Army took up the task of establishing “The Flying Angel Club” in the Port of Saint John. Many other clergy and officers of the Church Army have been involved over the years. I have served as Chaplain since January of 2015.

It is a joy to serve the sailors that visit our port by providing them with communication access, transportation and a home away from home in our humble station on Tilley Lane, on the west side of the harbour.

Besides serving their basic needs in these ways we are always on the lookout for more serious issues of welfare and general wellbeing. These have included death at sea, bereavement, abuse, expired contracts, severe sickness and the list goes on.

Seafaring has been described as “like being in jail with the chance of drowning”, and yet these younger, men and sometimes women, embark on this important vocation with delivers 90% of all goods that you and I use across the oceans.

For more information or to become involved as a volunteer please see our web site (sjseafarers.com) or reach out to me.

The Rev. Eric Phinney
Chaplain, Mission to Seafarers Saint John

MOTHERS' UNION

OUR MANDATE AND AIMS

The Diocese of Fredericton Mothers' Union is part of a worldwide organization of over 4 million members in 84 countries. Our vision is a world where everyone prospers. We actively pursue this vision through prayer and action, helping to build confident people and resilient communities. Our movement seeks to bring about justice, challenge prejudice and advocate for change. Our current global Mothers' Union mission is to advocate and to work towards reducing gender-based violence.

The Mothers' Union continually aims to: encourage parents in their role to develop the faith of their children; maintain a worldwide fellowship of Christians united in prayer, worship and service; promote conditions in society favourable to stable family life and the protection of children; help those whose family life has met with adversity; promote and support married life.

MOTHERS' UNION IN NEW BRUNSWICK

In New Brunswick, we currently have 93 members in good standing in 8 branches. This represents a relatively stable membership since the last report to Synod in 2022 but an overall decline of approximately of 20% in the last five years. This is attributed to difficulties in restarting regular branch functioning since the pandemic, an ageing membership and a lack of new members, particularly those willing to function in a leadership capacity.

All branches function independently to meet the needs of their respective congregations and individuals in their communities. Our Diocesan Council gives support to our 7 branches, plans Diocesan events, and works to maintain relationships and communication with the Mothers' Union Canadian Council, as well as Mary Sumner House, which is our international headquarters in London, England.

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

Since the last synod, our Mothers' Union Branches have been working to support their individual communities in a variety of ways that support our aims and global mission. We encourage all interested people to reach out to members at our Mothers' Union branches for more information on how the Mothers' Union is functioning in their church and community. We do believe that parishes and communities with active Mothers' Union branches benefit from our activity. In addition, we are a source of friendship, support, prayer, learning and fun for all our members.

As a collective Diocesan group, we have been working towards educating our members and parishes about the issue of gender-based violence. Our annual rally in 2023 at Christ Church Cathedral in Fredericton highlighted the work of "The Silent Witness Project" in New Brunswick. This program aims to remember women killed through intimate partner violence, create awareness of risk factors for intimate partner violence and promote action. Our annual rally in 2024, at St. John the Baptist in Riverview, highlighted the work of a new organization in New Brunswick called Shelter Movers. This organization supports people fleeing situations of domestic violence. They help their clients by providing assistance and support through the process of moving to a safer location or by providing temporary storage of their belongings until they are settled.

NEW BRUNSWICK ANGLICAN

I want to update synod delegates, and all parishioners, on happenings with the New Brunswick Anglican newspaper.

First of all, the great cull of the outdated circulation lists that took place a few years ago saw us, and virtually all diocesan papers across Canada, lose about two-thirds of our subscribers, though it's fair to say the lists were out of date and many papers were never read. Since then, our readership has remained steady.

As you can see from the chart I have included, the number of subscribers has changed very little from June 2023 to June 2024: 1,845 to 1,822. The positive aspect of this is that the paper is being delivered to more than 1,800 people who want it, read it and hopefully, enjoy it.

There is continuing talk of moving away from the print product to an online version only. This has been going on for at least seven years, with no real end date in sight. It will come eventually, but it's a complicated process that is going to take some time to implement, which is good news for those readers who enjoy having the physical paper in their hands.

The diocesan newspapers are mailed with the national paper, the Anglican Journal. We enjoy a negotiated rate for printing that includes all the papers, which we would likely lose if the AJ stopped printing.

Our futures are intertwined with the AJ. When the AJ stops printing, we will be on our own, and the decision of whether to keep printing and mailing the NB Anglican or not will be an expensive one.

So the Anglican Journal taking that step to cease printing would be a big one. There is also the fact that, while all the newspapers are available online, there are vast parts of Canada where dial-up internet is still in place. That would separate a lot of parishioners — and donors — from their diocesan and national newspapers. The national church is well aware of that fact.

When it becomes too costly for the national church to continue printing, it will stop, though the newspapers will continue to be found online. At the last conference of the Anglican Editors Association, held in June this year, we were told that the AJ, at present, has no immediate plans to discontinue print, and that if/when that happens, we will be given ample warning.

In the meantime, the national church has spearheaded an Anglican news website that includes all the diocesan papers that have joined. The NB Anglican is in the process of joining. You can check out the papers at this site: anglicannews.ca

On to better news! This spring, the Canadian Christian Communicators Association (formerly the Canadian Church Press) held its annual awards competition, and the NB Anglican did very well. For the fourth time in five years, the NB Anglican was chosen best Christian newspaper in Canada (2020, 2022, 2023, 2024).

It also had two first place finishes — Best Photo Essay (Retired Clergy Tea), and Best Front Page (ACW member rappelling off a building in Moncton).

The NB Anglican placed third in the Best News Story category, with “His Name Is Luke.” This story recounted the memorial service for Luke Landry, a Christian and an addict who died in Moncton. He was long associated with St. George's, where the service was held.

Finally, it earned an honorable mention for the AC Forrest Award, which judges socially conscious religious journalism. The story featured Catapult Construction's tiny home project housed in the former All Saints Anglican Church in East Saint John.

As of October, I have been the diocesan communications officer and editor of the NB Anglican for 10 years, and my retirement is not far off. So many times in this past decade, I have wondered if I would run out of stories, but that's never happened! This diocese is rich in vibrant, caring people and innovative, compassionate outreach programs, and I have loved telling all those stories. Thank you for the privilege!

PENNIES AND SPARROWS (Central Saint John Community Ministry)

Pennies and Sparrows has now been running for 10 years! Each year we have had a great deal to learn. As we have gotten to know the community of Saint John - it's wonderful attributes and its challenges - we have felt called to respond to the needs around us. From the 2016 influx of Syrian refugees, to opening an emergency shelter in the dead of winter in 2022, we have held space for those who are struggling in our community.

Currently, Saint John - and most urban centres across the country - are experiencing an influx of visible homelessness. Tent encampments have cropped up in various places, neighbourhoods are experiencing increases in theft and other crime, and there is a general sense of instability as rents increase and food costs soar.

In the midst of all of this we open the doors of Stone church to welcome people: the unhoused or under-housed, newcomers to Canada, seniors, children and youth, those who are looking to help others, and those who are looking for help. We offer a space that is welcoming and that aims to alleviate the burdens of loneliness and need.

Throughout the years we have come to do this in several ways:

- Weekday drop-in: serving coffee, tea, and snacks. We are also able to provide haircuts, health services through a community nurse, connections to housing services through Fresh Start Outreach Workers, clothing, hygiene items, art supplies, and connection to staff and volunteers.
- Foodie Fridays: A program where participants cook a meal together and then eat together.
- English Language Classes for newcomers and English Language camps for newcomer children.
- Emmaus Way Teams: offering teams of support for individuals and families who are going through unstable circumstances.
- Kids Lead Programs: teaching kids about community development, the role of non-profits, and how to respond to social issues.
- One on one supports to those who come through our doors.
- We also support and partner with other non-profits in the area by attending board meetings, sitting on committees for the city, and meeting with community leaders and representatives to work towards better solutions.

We rely entirely on Jesus for the patience and strength to do this work, for provision for funding, and for those willing to support what we do. We are grateful for the Diocese of Fredericton for providing annual support in the range of $10,000 and for the parishes and members of the Diocese who support us in prayer and in financial giving. Please keep it up! As the community struggles grow, so does our need for prayer and funding.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Terence and the Rev. Jasmine Chandra

PRIMATE'S WORLD RELIEF AND DEVELOPMENT FUND

The Primate's World Relief and Development Fund (PWRDF) is the Anglican Church of Canada's vehicle for sustainable development and relief projects. The work is carried out through partners, in over 70 countries, including here at home in Canada. In the last fiscal year (2023-2024) PWRDF distributed $1,880,053 for various development projects and $2,275,323 for humanitarian relief.

One new (2023) area for distribution is the In-Canada Emergency Fund. It was created to provide dioceses with funding which can be made available after weather events, such as floods, wildfires and hurricanes, etc. This money is not meant to replace monies available from insurance or governments, etc. but is meant to “fill the gap”. For instance, some funding was made available to the Diocese of Edmonton, after the wildfires in Jasper, Alberta, this past summer. These funds can be used for such things as gift cards, counselling, rebuilding community assets, etc.

As Diocesan Representative, (about a year now), I had the opportunity to attend the annual get together for Diocesan Reps, as well as to meet board members and Youth Council members, last October. This was a highlight for me because it made the scope and impact of PWRDF worldwide seem so very much greater. It was especially wonderful to hear firsthand about a few projects; for example, the protection of an area of Columbia known as the Paramos. This part of the country has an ecosystem containing over 70% of its water resources and yet is under threat due to mining and weak Columbian legislation. To help combat the loss of water and to educate the public, PWRDF is partnering with WACC (World Association for Christian Communication) and a local organization called Grupo Communicate. The goal is to “generate, foster and deepen a citizen culture of knowledge and care of the Paramos as a vital source of water, worth protecting in the fight against climate change”. This one example is representative of the variety and scope of PWRDF projects worldwide.

Also, as Diocesan Rep, I have had several speaking opportunities this year. It is an honour to represent such a wonderful organization, and I am certainly available to speak to any of our parishes throughout our Diocese. I plan on attending the annual PWRDF get-together this November, in Hamilton. Additionally, I take part in a monthly prayer meeting via Zoom. It is held the second Thursday of each month, and all are welcome to take part. Please consider joining us, as we pray for our world, our partners and our projects.

In closing, I would like to thank all individuals and parishes who financially and prayerfully support the work of PWRDF. Together we are “working towards a truly just, healthy and peaceful world”. It cannot be done without all of us partnering together.

Respectfully submitted,
Debbie Edwards, PWRDF Diocesan Representative

ROTHESAY NETHERWOOD SCHOOL CHAPLAINCY

One of my key responsibilities as the School Chaplain is to guide our Chapel program. The entire school gathers at the start of each school day with a time of hymns, readings from Scripture, prayer, reflections from me, and presentations from all sorts of groups on current events and topics that are relevant to our school.

As we are a very diverse community, it is also a chance to learn together about each other’s cultures, interests, and faith commitments in respectful and supportive ways, honouring each other’s spiritual integrity, as well as making space for all to ask questions, seek truth, and build empathy for others regardless of any differences they may have.

In addition to our regular Chapel Program, I also facilitate our Chapel Speech tradition. Every year, all of our Grade 12’s take one day in Chapel to offer a 5-6 minute speech on something that they believe to be true. I help guide them throughout their preparation, and offer a personal prayer afterwards for each one. This is a tradition that I consider myself blessed to support, and have learned much about what is on the minds of young people today by walking with our graduating class each year as they face this important milestone.

I continue to work alongside the other members of the RNS Wellness Team, offering one-on-one spiritual care, as well as helping to resolve conflicts between our students when they arise through restorative practices.

Over the last few years, our School has been facing a positive challenge: how to adjust what we do to serve a growing community. Our student body is now over 320 strong, which opens up many new opportunities, but it also requires us to make some major adaptations.

The biggest change so far has been the major expansion of our Memorial Chapel balcony. This project had become necessary to ensure we will have enough space for our whole school to gather together now and in the future, and it was initiated in memory of our beloved past School Chaplain, Fr. Jim Golding.

In addition to the increased seating capacity this project provided, an external access tower was built to make the entire building accessible. Though fundraising continues to bring this important project to completion, we are very thankful to God for this gift, and to all who helped invest in our schools Chapel life.

Please continue to pray for the students, staff, and faculty at RNS, that we may continue to be a place where character, courage, creativity, and community can thrive here in our province.

Respectfully submitted,
Rob Montgomery, School Chaplain

SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC (CHOIR SCHOOL)

(This report summarizes the past five years in the life of Choir School during and after the pandemic.)

For 62 consecutive years from 1958 to 2019, Canada's longest-running Choir School convened for a full week each July, with a children's choir and staff of Counsellors starting out the week and an adult choir joining them for a long weekend. Forty-nine of those years occurred at Rothesay Collegiate School, now known as Rothesay Netherwood; from 1972 to 1984 Choir School moved to Camp Medley.

Then COVID happened. Choir School was cancelled altogether in 2020 but managed to mount a short on-line service in 2021, which was not counted as an official year of our life. Years 63 and 64 (in 2022 and 2023) took the form of intensive one-day adult workshops at Trinity Church in Saint John, each culminating in the usual Choral Evensong under the current Music Director Spencer Belyea. In January 2022 we learned with regret of the passing, just two days apart, of two of our original (1958) Junior Choristers, Bill Turney and Joanne Kee.

In 2024 we marked Year 65 by returning to the traditional three-day adult weekend, this time jointly directed by Spencer Belyea and Dr. Joel Tranquilla, native of Fredericton, and accompanied by organist Gibson MacMillan. We also marked our 50th time at Rothesay Netherwood School, for which we presented the Chaplain, Rev. Rob Montgomery, with a plaque to be mounted in the Chapel.

The Choir School database (maintained by Lynn Mills of Gagetown) contains approximately 2000 names, an impressive achievement. We have a system of coloured ribbons with our angel logo, the colours denoting number of years attended. We encourage choristers to wear their ribbons in their parish choirs. In 2024 we were pleased to recognize our Treasurer Linda Pitman (Parish of Portland) as the fourth recipient of a 40-year ribbon – she began in 1983 at Medley, and has not missed a year since.

We are currently reaching out into the community in attempting to attract our youth cohort back to Choir School so that we can restore our full week, hopefully in 2025. We recognize that junior church choirs are becoming a rare breed, and we are also cognizant of the amount of choral training that was lost in our schools during COVID. Nevertheless, our dedicated staff and choristers long to see Choir School continue for many years to come.

Choir School is grateful for ongoing financial support from the Diocese of Fredericton, the Anglican Foundation, and others as we strive to keep our fees affordable and to provide bursary help where required.

Robert Taylor & Mary Louise Belyea
Choir School Co-Chairs 2023 and 2024.

A review of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Conclusion

Based on our review nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton as at December 31, 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

1. Nature of operations

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton represents the administrative and episcopal head of the Anglican Church of Canada operations in New Brunswick. The organization is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act and, accordingly, is exempt from income taxes.

2. Significant accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The significant accounting policies are detailed as follows:

(a) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances held in bank accounts and investment cash accounts with financial institutions.

(b) Fund accounting

The organization follows the fund basis of accounting which provides for separate groups of accounts to ensure accountability for restricted assets. The funds established by the organization are as follows:

Operating fund reports general activities related to the unrestricted and internally restricted funds. Internally restricted funds include special purpose funds and designated funds reserved for future expenses. Internally designated funds earned interest income based on the closing balance at a rate of 3.25% (2021 - 2.75%).

Capital assets fund reports the assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses related to capital assets.

Externally restricted funds reports activities related to amounts where the donation and related investment income is restricted on usage. There are four separate funds including:

- Diocesan trusts have been established through estate bequests and are generally limited to the use of earnings only. Interest earnings are based on the annual rate of return of the overall performance of the investment portfolio [2022 - 4.5%; 2021 - 4.4%]. No earnings are generated in years with a negative rate of return. Earnings in excess of the restricted capital are distributed as per the terms of each individual trust agreement.
- Diocesan funds have been established through estate bequests and other means and may not be limited to the use of earnings only. Interest is calculated on the closing balance at a rate of 3.25% (2021 - 2.75%). Funds are distributed as per the terms of each individual fund.
- Designated funds have been established through donations, bequests, parish assessments, and interest from Diocesan trusts and Diocesan funds. Interest is calculated on the closing balance at a rate of 3.25% (2021 - 2.75%). Funds are distributed as per the terms of each individual fund.
- Special purpose funds have been established through donations for a specified purpose. Interest income is not earned on these funds. Funds are distributed as per the terms of each individual fund.

(c) Revenue recognition

The organization follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions to its restricted funds. Contributions to the restricted funds are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Unrestricted contributions and revenue from shared ministry and parish assessments are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Contributions restricted for the purpose of capital assets are deferred and amortized into revenue at a rate corresponding to the amortization rate for the related capital assets.

Investment income includes dividends, interest income, foreign exchange, and realized investment gains and losses. Dividend, interest and foreign exchange income is recognized when the right to receive payment is established, net of management fees and transaction costs. Unrealized investment gains and losses reflect the change in the fair market value of the investments at year end and are recognized in the Operating Fund.

(d) Investments

Investments are reported at fair value using quoted market prices.

(e) Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using the average cost method.

(f) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. The organization provides for amortization using the straight-line method at rates designed to amortize the cost of the capital assets over their estimated useful lives. One half of the year's amortization is recorded in the year of acquisition. No amortization is recorded in the year of disposal. The annual amortization rates are as follows:

Buildings	40 years straight-line
Furniture and fixtures	5 years straight-line

(g) Contributed services

Volunteers contribute time to assist the organization in carrying out its mandate. While these services benefit the organization considerably, a reasonable estimate of their amount and fair value cannot be made and, accordingly, these contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton

Notes to the Financial Statements

2. Significant accounting policies, continued*(h) Post retirement benefits

The Synod and its employees participate in a multi-employer contributory defined benefit pension plan (the General Synod Pension Plan of the Anglican Church of Canada) owned and managed by The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada. The Synod is only responsible for annual contributions. In 2022, the pension plan expense for the Synod office and administrative staff was $84,647 (2021 - $105,647).

The Synod also participates in a health care benefits plan for retired clergy managed by RBC Insurance. In 2022, the health care benefits plan expense for retired clergy was $125,172 (2021 - $54,663).

(i) Financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value, except for certain non-arm's length transactions. The organization subsequently measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for securities quoted in an active market, which are subsequently measured at fair value.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash, parish receivables, and other receivables, advances to Camp Medley, and parish loans. Financial assets measured at fair market value include investments. Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include payables and loan payable.

(j) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2022

16. Financial instruments

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a transaction will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The organization's main credit risks relate to its accounts receivable, loans receivable, and loan guarantees. The organization reduces its risk by performing credit valuations on a regular basis and granting credit on review of the applicant's ability to repay. In the opinion of management, the credit risk exposure to the organization is low and not material.

(b) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether the factors are specific to the instrument or all instruments traded in the market.

(c) Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The organization is exposed to currency risk with respect to its investments. At December 31, 2022, foreign investments represent approximately 49% (2021 - 43%) of the total investment portfolio (as shown as investments and guaranteed deposits on the statement of financial position).

It is management's opinion that the Synod is not subject to significant amounts of risks with respect to its financial instruments. The Synod manages these risks by its Investment Policy Statement. This statement is reviewed annually by the finance committee and establishes policies for the management of its investments, dictates the Synod's approach to growth, credit quality and profitability objectives. The overall objectives of the policy are to preserve and enhance the value of capital through adequate diversification in high quality investments and achieve the highest investment return within the level of acceptable risk. Subject to limitations, the organization only invests in equities and fixed income.

17. Comparative figures

The financial statements have been reclassified, where applicable, to conform to the presentation used in the current year.

18. Flow-through revenue and expenses

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton administers the payroll for all parishes in the province of New Brunswick. In 2022, $3,931,382 in payroll (2021 - $4,196,924) was administered through the Canada Revenue Agency payroll account on behalf of the parishes.

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton accepts and issues charitable receipts on behalf of New Brunswick parishes in-kind donations of marketable securities. Cash equal to the fair-market value of the donated marketable securities is then transferred to the named-recipient parish. In 2022, $209,813 (2021 - $201,175 in-kind donations were received and receipted on behalf of New Brunswick parishes).

INDEPENDENT PRACTITIONER'S REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

To the Members of:
The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements for The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton that comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2023 and the statement of operations, changes in fund balances and cash flows for the year then ended, as well as a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that these financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton as at December 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(c) Revenue Recognition

The organization follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions to its restricted funds. Contributions to the restricted funds are recognized as revenue when received or receivable of the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Unrestricted contributions and revenue from shared ministry and parish assessments are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Contributions restricted for the purpose of capital assets are deferred and amortized into revenue at the rate corresponding to the amortization rate for the related capital assets.

Investment income includes dividends, interest income, foreign exchange, and realized investment gains and losses. Dividend, interest and foreign exchange income is recognized when the right to receive payment is established, net of management fees and transaction costs. Unrealized investment gains and losses reflect the change in the fair market value of the investments at year end and are recognized in the Operating Fund.

(d) Investments

Investments are reported at fair value using quoted market prices.

(e) Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined using the average cost method.

(f) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. The organization provides for amortization using the straight-line method at rates designed to amortize the cost of the capital assets over their estimated useful lives. One half of the year's amortization is recorded in the year of acquisition. No amortization is recorded in the year of disposal. The annual amortization rates are as follows:

Buildings	40 years straight-line

(g) Contributed services

Volunteers contribute time to assist the organization in carrying out its mandate. While these services benefit the organization considerably, a reasonable estimate of their amount and fair value cannot be made and, accordingly these contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.

(h) Post retirement benefits

The Synod and its employees participate in a multi-employer contributory defined benefit pension plan (the General Synod Pension Plan of the Anglican Church of Canada) owned and managed by The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada. The Synod is only responsible for annual contributions. In 2023, the pension plan expense for the Synod office and administrative staff was $97,039 (2022 - $84,647).

The Synod also participates in a health care benefits plan for retired clergy managed by RBC Insurance. In 2023, the health care benefits plan expense for retired clergy was $111,381 (2022 - $125,172).

(i) Financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value, except for certain non-arms length transactions. The organization subsequently measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for securities quoted in an active market, which are subsequently measured at fair value.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash, parish receivables, and other receivables, advances to Camp Medley, and parish loans. Financial assets measured at fair market value include investments. Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include payables and loan payable.

Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2023

---

16. Financial instruments

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a transaction will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The organization's main credit risks relate to its accounts receivable, loans receivable, and loan guarantees. The organization reduces its risk by performing credit valuations on a regular basis and granting credit on review of the applicant's ability to repay. In the opinion of management, the credit risk exposure to the organization is low and not material.

(b) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether the factors are specific to the instrument or all instruments traded in the market.

(c) Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The organization is exposed to currency risk with respect to its investments. At December 31, 2023, foreign investments represent approximately 50% (2022 - 49%) of the total investment portfolio (as shown as investments and guaranteed deposits on the statement of financial position).

It is management's opinion that the Synod is not subject to significant amounts of risks with respect to its financial instruments. The Synod manages these risks by its Investment Policy Statement. This statement is reviewed annually by the finance committee and establishes policies for the management of its investments, dictates the Synod's approach to growth, credit quality and profitability objectives. The overall objectives of the policy are to preserve and enhance the value of capital through adequate diversification in high quality investments and achieve the highest investment return within the level of acceptable risk. Subject to limitations, the organization only invests in equities and fixed income.

17. Comparative Figures

The financial statements have been reclassified, where applicable, to conform to the presentation used in the current year.

18. Flow-through revenue and expenses

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton administers the payroll for all parishes in the province of New Brunswick. In 2023, $4,673,320 payroll (2022 - $3,931,382) was administered through the Canada Revenue Agency payroll account on behalf of the parishes.

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton accepts and issues charitable receipts on behalf of New Brunswick parishes in-kind donations of marketable securities. Cash equal to the fair-market value of the donated marketable securities is then transferred to the named-recipient parish. In 2023, $115,684 (2022 - $209,813) in-kind donations were received and receipted on behalf of New Brunswick parishes.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Markets have clearly left behind the last vestiges of the 2022-23 bear market, as indices continue to achieve new highs. Our consistent investment approach, combined with a keen focus on embracing evolving opportunities, is once again proving to be the most successful way to preserve and grow wealth for our clients over time. Your patience and discipline, and your trust in us as the stewards of your wealth and expert guides along your financial journey, are once again yielding long-term results.

But challenges remain, and new ones are emerging. Geopolitical risks have risen sharply over the last few years. Inflation, while down sharply, continues to demand the vigilance of central bankers. That's why our focus on what we can manage and control together through the expertise that your Investment Counsellor can deliver and access is so important to helping you achieve what matters in your life.

I am delighted to extend a warm welcome to our new clients from the former HSBC Private Investment Counsel, and we hope all of our valued clients enjoy a happy and healthy summer ahead.

Sincerely,

Vijay Parmar

President, RBC PH&N Investment Counsel

INVESTMENT COUNSELLOR'S LETTER

The global economy has managed to withstand higher interest rates and continue to grow, reinforcing our view that a recession can be avoided over the year ahead. We place the odds at 65% that economies manage a soft landing, with potentially two to five years of further expansion based on our business-cycle analysis. U.S. economic strength coming out of the pandemic was helped by robust consumer spending, bigger-than-expected fiscal stimulus and population growth, but now appears to be moderating while growth in other regions is accelerating.

We expect inflation to remain high in 2024 given recent upside inflation surprises, but for it to trend downward for the remainder of the year and into 2025. We expect to be well into next year before inflation falls to central bankers' 2% targets. The ultimate trajectory to lower interest rates will be paced by incoming economic and inflation data and, in our view, the rate-cutting cycle should be more gradual than past periods of easing in the absence of an imminent recession catalyst.

Global government-bond yields have risen since the last edition of the Global Investment Outlook (available at rbcgam.com in the “Insights” section), reflecting tempered investor expectations for central banks to cut interest rates. In the U.S., too-high inflation has been more persistent than expected and economic growth in the first half of 2024 better than forecast. Because of rising yields, government bonds in all major markets have posted losses so far this year.

Does this portend another year of negative total returns for bonds? We don’t believe so. Some of this year’s poor performance is due to timing: Bond yields fell sharply just before the turn of the year and have since risen. Since last October, when yields reached multi-year highs, bonds have recorded positive returns as yields are now lower. Higher and more volatile yields mean simply that bond returns have become more variable than investors have grown accustomed to since the financial crisis. However, higher yields also provide investors with higher expected bond returns. Over the long run, a bond’s current yield to maturity is a good guide for future returns, so investors can expect returns of around 4.50% per year on the U.S. 10-year government bond if held to maturity. Over the next 12 months, we forecast that bond returns will likely be better than that as we expect most central banks to cut interest rates.

Policymakers in Europe and Canada have delivered their first interest-rate cut this cycle while those in the UK should follow suit before the end of the summer. The U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) is likely to start lowering rates a little bit later, probably in the fall. Lower inflation means that policymakers can shift their focus toward supporting growth and labour markets, which have softened everywhere. This means rate cuts.

Policymakers tentatively admit that interest rates have likely peaked but are reluctant to endorse the suggestion that substantial easing of monetary policy is in the offing, which would be a boon for bond returns. For their part, investors expect central bankers to deliver between 75 and 125 basis points of cuts over the next year in Canada, Europe, the U.S. and the UK. Such decreases appear paltry compared with the several hundred basis points of rate hikes delivered over the past several years. Policy rates priced in forward markets two and three years from today are still well above those that prevailed before the pandemic. Measured against estimates of so-called neutral rates (the rate of interest at which monetary policy neither stimulates nor restricts growth), it appears that investors expect monetary policy will remain in restrictive territory for the next decade.

In effect, market expectations imply that there is no risk of recession or need for easy monetary policy over the next 10 years. This seems unlikely. We can agree that the immediate risk of recession has receded. RBC GAM no longer expects a recession in the U.S. over the next year, and in the near term it doesn’t appear that most economies need substantial help from monetary policy. While inflation has fallen precipitously, it remains above target in all regions even after accounting for methodological differences. Unemployment has risen, but from levels that were probably too low to be sustained without generating yet more inflation. Over the course of a decade, however, it is almost certain that many economies will experience at least one recession and that central bankers will cut rates more than currently expected. To us, this makes bonds attractive.

High expectations for policy rates through the long term could also be explained by the idea that perhaps the interest rates that economies would find restrictive have risen since the pandemic. Higher government deficits and greater investment needs to battle climate change – alongside the higher debt-servicing costs that accompany those burdens - can slow rather than accelerate growth. We are not as convinced about higher neutral fed funds rates as the market appears to be. We are more convinced that the market should price in a larger premium to lend over long time frames - the so-called term premium. Over time, we expect the Treasury yield curve to steepen, with 10-year securities offering investors higher yields than 2-year bonds, something that hasn't happened since July 2022.

We think that with inflation having slowed at the fastest pace in three decades and unemployment rising, central bankers can conclude that current policy rates are indeed restrictive. As inflation falls further, we think most central banks will provide some cuts to markets, pushing down bond yields, particularly on bonds maturing over the next two to three years.

The fly in the ointment for this story of restrictive interest rates, falling inflation and coming rate cuts is the relative success of the U.S. economy in shrugging off sharply higher rates. Policymaking at the national level does not happen in a vacuum. The recent stickiness of price pressures and above-trend growth in the U.S. reduces the confidence of other central bankers that price pressures in their own economies have abated more quickly due to policy or simply reflect the waning impact of pandemic-related supply shortages. What is more, growth has been picking up in Europe, which has experienced particularly sluggish activity, and this trend may obviate the need for sharp interest-rate cuts to support the economy.

To be sure, we don't anticipate a return to the pre-COVID period of exceptionally low interest rates. What we do expect is a return to more normal conditions, even without a recession. Inflation closer to policymakers' targets and rising unemployment suggest that at least some monetary accommodation is appropriate.

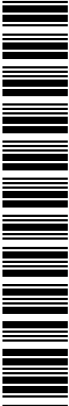

We think most central banks will ease policy as the year progresses. Disinflation should continue in most countries and, after surprisingly high U.S. inflation to start the year, inflation has started easing again in the U.S.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RATE OF RETURN

Money weighted rate of return

This method takes into account the cumulative realized and unrealized capital gains and losses of an investment, plus income from the investment and the impact of the timing of deposits and withdrawals of any money or securities over the specified period, annualized for periods greater than one year and is therefore appropriate for comparison to your return objective.

Time weighted rate of return

This method takes into account the cumulative realized and unrealized capital gains and losses of an investment, plus income from the investment but removes the impact on the timing of deposits and withdrawals of any money or securities over the specified time period, annualized for periods greater than one year and is therefore appropriate for comparison to a financial market index.

MANAGER RATE OF RETURN

Investment fund performance

Management fees and expenses all may be associated with investment fund investments. Unless otherwise noted, the indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Mutual and pool fund securities are not guaranteed or covered by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation or by any other government deposit insurer. For money market funds, there can be no assurances that the fund will be able to maintain its net asset value per unit at a constant amount or that the full amount of your investment in the fund will be returned to you. The value of investment funds change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

Management expenses for RBC Funds and PH&N Funds are based on actual expenses for the full-year period, January 1 to December 31, 2015, expressed as a percentage of the fund's assets on an annualized basis. Management expenses for RBC Corporate Class Funds are the actual expenses for the half-year period, April 1 to September 30, 2015, expressed as a percentage of the fund's assets on an annualized basis.

Model Returns

Model returns are hypothetical and may not perfectly replicate the actual performance of clients invested in the same model portfolio. They are intended to help illustrate the general performance of the model portfolio while removing the variability that results when implemented at a particular client level, as discussed in more detail below. The model performance information provided is calculated using a sample account that is funded with a notional dollar amount and assumes that the respective model is followed exactly without any deviations due to timing or individual client preference. Trades executed in accordance with the model are completed at the same price (including commission, if applicable) in this sample account as trades would be in many client portfolios if they were implementing the model at the same time. In contrast, returns for pooled funds are calculated from actual prices of the pooled fund after operating expenses and adjusting for any distributions.

It is important to note that model returns have been calculated gross of fees (except commission, if applicable) and independently from what has occurred in any particular client's portfolio. The performance achieved in your account(s) or portfolio(s) may be different from model returns due to many factors such as expenses, timing of investment, unique circumstances or restrictions in your portfolios, for example, (i) a desire not to hold a certain security or sector, or (ii) differing liquidity preferences. The calculation of performance on investments held in your account(s) or portfolio(s) represent the best indication of your rate of return, gross or net of any investment management and custody fees, as indicated.

Information contained in Your Portfolio Review related to model returns is provided by RBC Global Asset Management Inc. ("RBC GAM") and investment manager commentaries are provided by individual investment managers, as indicated, and are for information purposes only. RBC GAM takes reasonable steps to provide current, accurate and reliable information, and believes it to be so when printed, however due to the possibility of human, mechanical or other errors, RBC GAM is not responsible for such if contained therein. Information obtained from third parties is believed to be reliable, but no representation or warranty, expressed or implied, is made by RBC GAM, its affiliates or any other person as to its accuracy, completeness or correctness.

Past performance is not indicative of future results. The value of investments and any income from them is not guaranteed and may fall or rise and the investor may not get back the original investment. Index returns are for illustrative purposes only and do not represent actual model performance. Indexes are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index.
